A MORPHINE FIEND

SHOOTS TWO MEN IN A NEW YORK RESORT.

NEITHER FATALLY INJURED

THE DEADLY ASSAULT QUITE UNPROVOKED.

ASSAILANT IS A STUDENT

BOTTLES OF DRUGS FOUND ON HIS PERSON.

New York, March 22—A morphine-crazed admirer of Minnie Seligman, the actress, bought a box for himself at the Broadway theater for the first night of a new play last night, attracted the attention of everyone in the play house by his demonstrations of infatuation with the actress, followed her to the Pabst rathskeller and shot five times at her and her escorts, Alexander W. Dingwell, manager of Jacob Litt's theatrical enterprises, and John G. Leffingwell, of the Broadway theater.

Dingwell is in Roosevelt hospital with a wound in the back. Leffingwell got a scratch in the left arm. One bullet went through the actress' dress. The man was arrested and arraigned in police court, where he said he was Robert H. Moulton, a Columbia college student, of Springfield, Tenn.

He was held in $5,000 bail for further examination.

Moulton had morphine in tablets and in solution in his possession when taken to the station house. He claims he does not know what he was doing when he fired the shots.

IS A MORPHINE FIEND.

Moulton said he was a user of morphine and that he took a good deal of the drug yesterday. He said he remembers going to the Broadway theater and remembers the second act of the play there, but nothing more.

He also remembers coming out, but asserts he does not remember anything that happened from that time until he found himself in the patrol wagon.

It was said at the hospital that Dingwall was resting easily.

DINGWALL WELL KNOWN.

Chicago, March 22.—George Warren, treasurer of McVickers' theater, said, when told of the shooting of Dingwall and Leffingwell:

"Mr. Dingwall has been with Mr. Litt about fifteen years, acting as general manager for him as well as manager of the Broadway theater. His family resides, I believe, in Milwaukee. Mr. Leffingwell was an advance agent for Mr. Litt and at various times has acted in that capacity for Mme. Modjeska and for Otis Skinner. I understand he was wealthy in former years, enjoying an annual income of $70,000. He once owned a newspaper in Hartford, Conn., and was known in every important city in the country. Dingwall also was a newspaper man in his younger days and worked on a Milwaukee paper."

GOOD REPUTE AT HOME.

Nashville, Tenn., March 22.—Robert M. Moulton is the youngest son of the late Frank Moulton, at one time a well known grain dealer in this city. Moulton was born in this city and resided here until about ten years ago, when his father moved to Memphis, where he died.

Robert is about twenty-four years of age and has been at Columbia college several years, pursuing the study of architecture. His mother and other relatives reside at Springfield, Tenn. A brother lives in this city.

Moulton's hearing is defective in consequence of an attack of scarlet fever. In this city Moulton has many friends, who are at a loss to account for his escapade, and declare he is a person of the most kindly disposition.

FIRE IN A GROCERY.

The grocery and meat market of G. W. Spangler, at Hoagland avenue and Pontiac street, was damaged to an extent of $400 by fire shortly after midnight. The blaze started in a rear room which is used for rendering lard, and the rear portion of the building was badly damaged. The loss is covered by insurance.

MEETINGS FORBIDDEN.

St. Petersburg, March 22.—In connection with the riots here the prefect has issued a decree forbidding meetings and assemblages in the streets and squares. Persons infringing this legislation are liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months and a fine not exceeding five hundred roubles.

TAKE A GERMAN LOAN.

Berlin, March 22.—A syndicate of leading Berlin and provincial banks, headed by the Imperial bank, has taken over an imperial three per cent. loan of three hundred million marks, which will be issued early in April.

AUDIENCE WITH EMPEROR.

Berlin, March 22.—Emperor William today received in audience the officers of the reichstag and diet, who expressed the indignation experienced by the members of their respective houses at the recent outrage committed on his majesty at Bremen and conveyed the congratulations of the members at his majesty's escape.

NEW STOCKHOLDERS GET IN

HOME TELEPHONE COMPANY WILL BE GAINER.

Fort Wayne Men Buy Eastern Holdings in National Long Distance Company Lines.

When the annual meeting of the National Telephone and Telegraph company is held April 2 there will be an important change of ownership of a majority of its stock which has heretofore been held in the east by the Telegraph and Cable company of America.

This stock, embracing something like $115,000, will pass into the hands of Fort Wayne people, many of whom are already interested in the Home Telephone company, and it means a closer alliance between the local and long distance independent lines.

The stock has all been subscribed for and is now being issued to the new holders. The National company has been gradually extending its territory over Indiana, Ohio and Michigan, and with its service connections reached more than 1,000 towns and cities in the three states. The deal has been in progress for some weeks, and its completion will be of immense value to the Home company, for while that organization is not interested in the purchase directly, so many of its stockholders will now be interested in the long distance lines as to practically insure a close relationship between them, and to guarantee a much larger field of connections for the Home company.

ABOUT THE COURT HOUSE.

In the report of the Schultz divorce case yesterday the alimony should have read as being $20 and $10 per month for successive periods of five years each.

Louis Brames sues William Hoch on account for $125.

In the divorce case of Englert vs. Englert, a motion to modify the judgment was overruled by Judge Aiken.

The divorce case of Boby vs. Boby was dismissed in the superior court.

Tomorrow is the last day of the January term of the superior court.

F. X. Miller has commenced suit against Herman Heersche for $1,000 damages for injuries received in an assault made on him several days ago. The trouble arose over a garnishee case of Heersche against Miller and Heerschee at the time was fined for assault and battery in a justice's court.

THREE NAMES GO IN.

Messrs. William Geake and C. S. Bash, republicans, and Charles Scheimann, democrat, have been commended to Governor Durbin as the choice of Fort Wayne republicans for police commissioners. The governor informed the local leaders that he would not undertake to settle the factional troubles here and that an agreement must be reached, which has accordingly been done. This disposes of Mr. Strauss, who was chosen at a republican meeting some days ago for membership on the commission.

MRS. NATION MAY COME.

Mrs. Carrie Nation, the vigorous Kansas apostle of temperance, may lecture in Fort Wayne the latter part of next week. This afternoon Manager Stouder, of the Masonic Temple, received a telegram from Mrs. Nation's agent asking for a date in this city, and they are now negotiating for her appearance in this city.

COULD NOT AGREE

THE TERMS WHICH THE BOERS HAVE REJECTED.

CORRESPONDENCE PUBLISHED

INDEPENDENCE OF REPUBLICS NOT DISCUSSED.

THE STATUS OF PRISONERS

MILNER COULD NOT GUARANTEE LIVES OF SOME.

London, March 22.—The parliamentary papers giving details of the negotiations between the Boer commander-in-chief, Generla Botha, and Lord Kitchener, commanding the British forces in South Africa, issued today, began with a telegram from Sir Alfred Milner to Colonial Secretary Chamberlain. The dispatch is dated Pretoria, February 22, and states that Mrs. Botha had returned from communicating with her husband, bringing a letter in reply to Sir Alfred Milner's verbal offering to meet General Botha as a means of ending the war, on the express understanding that he would not discuss the question of the independence of the Transvaal and the Orange River colony.

Mrs. Botha assured Sir Alfred Milner that the letter was written with that point clearly understood. General Botha referred the matter to his generals and it was stated that the meeting will probably take place at Middleburg.

HOPED IT WAS GENUINE.

Mr. Chamberlain replied that he was glad to hear of General Botha's desire to treat and hoped it was genuine.

"He will find us," said the colonial secretary, "anxious to meet him on all points affecting his individual position."

On February 27 Sir Alfred Milner cabled Lord Kitchener informing him that General Botha had written that he would be in Pretoria at 10 o'clock a. m., February 28.

A dispatch from Lord Kitchener to the war office, dated Pretoria, February 28, reports a long interview with General Botha, who showed a very good feeling and seemed anxious for peace. He asked for information, which he said he would submit to his government, the generals and the people. If they agreed, he would visit the Orange River colony and get them to agree. Should all then hand in their arms, it would finish the war. He said they could go on for some time and he was not sure he would be able to bring about peace without independence.

INDEPENDENCE A DANGER.

"I declined to discuss such a point," said Lord Kitchener, "and said a modified form of independence would be most dangerous and would lead to war in the future.

"Replying to General Botha's inquiries I informed him that when hostilities ceased the military would be replaced by a crown colony administration, consisting of a nominated executive and an elected assembly to advise him, followed after a period by a representative government.

"The Boers would be licensed to have rifles to protect themselves against the natives, the Dutch and English languages were to have equal rights, Kaffirs would not have the franchise until after the representative government had been granted, the Orange Free State laws for Kaffirs would be considerd good, church proprty, public trusts and orphan funds would not be touched, no war tax would be imposed on farmers, assistance would be given to repair the burned farms and to enable the farmers to start afresh and colonists who had joined the republics should be disfranchised.

SILENT AS TO PRISONERS.

"General Botha generally seemed satisfied with these conditions."

Among the questions to which Lord Kitchener apparently did not reply were when the war prisoners would return and regarding the taking over of debts of the republics, including those legally contracted since the beginning of the war.

General Botha was reported to be making a strong point of this. He referred to notes which had been issued, amounting to less than a million pounds.

Lord Kitchener arranged to communicate Botha's views to his government.

All that he said was qualified by being subject to confirmation from the home government.

THE REPLY TO BOTHA.

On March 3 Sir Alfred Milner cabled Lord Kitchener, suggesting the following replies to General Botha.

"I beg to inform you that on the occasion of hostilities and the complete surrender of arms, ammunition, cannon and munitions in the hands of the burghers in the field at the government depots or elsewhere, his majesty's government is prepared at once to grant amnesty in the Transvaal and Orange River colony for all bonafide acts of war during the hostilities, as well as to move the governments of Cape Colony and Natal to similar action, qualified by the disfranchisement of any British subjects implicated in the war. The military prisoners at St. Helena, Ceylon and elsewhere, on complete surrender, shall be brought back to their country.

TO ABOLISH MARTIAL LAW.

"Military law shall at once be replaced by a civil administration, but it is the desire of his majesty's government as soon as circumstances will permit to establish a representative government.

"On the cessation of hostilities a high court, independent of the executive, shall be established to administer the laws. Land, church property, trusts and orphan funds shall be respected.

"The English and Dutch languages shall be taught in the public schools and allowed in the law courts.

"The legal debts of the state to the amount of £1,000,000 shall be paid, even if contracted during hostilities, to the extent a creditor prove he has given value.

"The government does not intend to extend the franchise to Kaffirs in the Transvaal and Orange River colony before a representative government is granted."

The conditions regarding assistance to the farmers, fire arms, etc., are the same as those in Lord Kitchener's replies to General Botha.

LIABLE TO DEATH.

Sir Alfred Milner adds that he agrees to the above, except as to the desire for modification regarding British subjects in Cape Colony and Natal in the Boer army, who, if they returned to those colonies, will be liable to death under the laws of those colonies passed to meet circumstances arising in war. He added:

"While I am willing to concede much in order to strengthen General Botha in inducing the people to submit, amnesty for the rebels is not, in my opinion, a point which his majesty's government can afford to concede. I think it would have a deplorable effect upon Cape Colony and Natal to obtain peace by such a concession."

Mr. Chamberlain, in a reply dated March 6, directs Lord Kitchener to modify the terms on a number of points. Eventually Lord Kitchener reported to the war office, under date of Pretoria, March 20, that he had written General Botha the terms the government was prepared to adopt.

MODIFIED TERMS.

These were the same as already given, except in the following particulars:

"The government cannot undertake any liabilities regarding the debts of the late republics, but is prepared, as an act of grace, to set aside a million pounds to repay the inhabitants for goods requisitioned by the republican governments. If the claims after adjustment exceed £1,000,000 they are liable to reduction pro rata. The Kaffir franchise when given shall be so limited as to secure a just predominance of the white race.

"The legal position of the colored inhabitants will be similar to that now held by them in Cape Colony."

The letter concludes:

"I must inform your honor that if the terms now offered are not accepted after a reasonable delay for consideration they must be regarded as cancelled."

BOTHA DECLINES TERMS.

On March 16 Lord Kitchener received General Botha's acknowledgment of the receipt of the letter.

"I had advised my government," wrote General Botha, "of your excellency's letter, but after the mutual exchange of views in our interview at Middleburg, February 28, it will certainly not surprise your excellency to know that I do not feel disposed to recommend the terms of said letter, but they shall have the earnest consideration of my government. I may add that my government and my chief officers here entirely agree with my views."

WILL WORK FOR STATEHOOD.

Santa Fe, N. M., March 22.—Governor Otero has signed a resolution adopted by the territorial legislature authorizing the appointment of a non-partisan commission of fourteen, with the governor as an ex-officio member, to go to Washington and work for statehood and against the international dam project.

Dr. Martz was called to Bluffton on professional business this afternoon.

A HEAP OF RUINS

IS A LARGE PART OF KERR MURRAY WORKS.

MACHINE SHOP DESTROYED

FIRE DOES DAMAGE TO THE EXTENT OF $50,000.

WORKS ARE TO BE REBUILT

GAS EXPLOSION MAY HAVE BEEN A CAUSE.

A disastrous fire, the precise origin of which no one seems able to explain, completely destroyed the main building of the Kerr Murray Manufacturing company, at Calhoun and Murray streets, this morning, entailing a loss estimated at from $40,000 to $50,000. The burned building included the large machine shop, the company's offices, the draughting room, the pattern shop and the pattern storeroom, with its thousands of dollars worth of valuable patterns. There was a total of $32,000 insurance upon the burned property, all carried in companies represented by the Lumbard agency.

It was the most disastrous conflagration that has been visited upon any Fort Wayne institution since the burning of the big DeWald dry goods house one year ago last December, and the flames were discovered shortly after 7 o'clock today, just as the big concern had started upon the day's work, and when a force of 150 workmen were in the various departments. So rapidly did the flames spread over the upper floors of the building that within a few minutes it became evident that the efforts of the fire department to save the building would be fruitless. The rooms above the machine shop were filled with thousands of patterns, dry as tinder, and these were licked up as though of paper. In an incredibly short time the entire upper portion of the building was an immense mass of fire that seethed and roared in awful fury, while the intense heat drove back the crowds of spectators that hurried to the scene.

A LARGE STRUCTURE.

The machine shop building was of brick, with a frontage of sixty feet on Calhoun street and 180 on Murray street, two and one-half stories in height. The entire first floor, except a small portion at the rear, was used as a machine shop. The Kerr Murray company are builders of gas works machinery and apparatus, and the machine shop was elaborately equipped with the most approved iron and steel-working machinery of every description.

The Calhoun street end of the second floor as well as the upper half story of the building were used as the pattern storage rooms. Behind this was the large pattern shop, also upon the second floor. The rear portion of the building, back of the departments just mentioned, was divided into three stories. Upon the first floor at this point were the main offices of the company, above them A. D. Cressler's private office, and still higher the draughting room, connected with the pattern shop by a short stairway. Between the two offices was a false floor to permit the running of shafting, gas, water and steam pipes to the different departments from the engine room next in the rear of the building.

WHERE IT STARTED.

While none of the employes are able to assign a cause for the fire a number of the foremen who were among the first to see it are united in the statement that the fire started somewhere in this false floor and beneath the northwest corner of the draughting room. H. J. Remmert, superintendent of the draughting room, was at work at a desk there when he was suddenly enveloped in a dense cloud of smoke that appeared to come from beneath him. The smoke appeared to come with a rush into the room, and Mr. Remmert was nearly overcome. He staggered to the stairway and was compelled to stand for some moments choking and gasping for breath.

E. J. Kiss, foreman of the pattern shop, was among the very first to notice the fire, and Mr. Kiss also locates it beneath the floor of the draughting room. It took but a short time for the alarm to spread, and with a rush the employes took up the work of fighting the flames, while A. W. Beaber, a clerk, turned in the alarm.

FOUGHT THE FLAMES.

In the factory were several barrels of water, an equipment of buckets for fighting fire, and a large number of hand grenades. With tremendous energy the employes used every available means to master the situation previous to arrival of the department, and a number of them were overcome by the smoke which rushed out in tremendous volume, filling every department of the upper floor. Inside the draughting room it was impossible to see for the smoke. The fire spread rapidly beneath the feet of the impromptu fire fighters, and before the men realized the extent of the blaze the flames had penetrated into the pattern shop, passed along the partition and were licking up the patterns as though they were of tinder. With an awful velocity the flames spread westward over the second floor, for every bit of property in the pattern shop furnished ready fuel. On and on swept the fiery tongues, and before the workmen below realized it the entire second floor was a seething mass.

WORKMEN CUT OFF.

The rapid spread of the flames may be understood when it is known that the men from the pattern shop who were engaged in fighting the fire at the draughting room had no opportunity to turn back for their tools, but were compelled to scramble down the stairway and leave valuable tools and clothing at their benches as food for the flames. Several found themselves caught in the front end of the pattern shop after the flames had made egress by way of the stairs impossible and let themselves out of a window and down to the roof of the storeroom on the north by means of a rope.

Engine companies 2 and 8 made the response to the first alarm, and Fire Chief Hilbrecht, who reached the scene almost at the same time, quickly saw that the department was to have a monumental fight on their hands. A general alarm was at once turned in and every bit of fire fighting apparatus in the city hurried into the struggle. From every direction the steamers, hose wagons and hook and ladder trucks clattered up to the scene, while an immense crowd of spectators crowded in and filled every available point of vantage within sight of the fire.

The police quickly ran a line of ropes along the street to hold back the curious crowds, who were getting in the way of the firemen. All the shops in the vicinity ceased operations and their employes joined the throngs of spectators, through which the engines, hose wagons and coal trucks hurried into position, as nearly as possible surrounding the building. Several lines of hose were laid across the railroad tracks, tying up all trains and the street car lines at the Calhoun street crossing.

Seven steamers, puffing at full speed, poured a perfect deluge of water upon the upper floors of the building from every point of the compass, but the water apparently had no more effect than though it were oil to feed the fury of the flames. The entire upper floor of the big building was a literal hell of flame that roared and crashed and increased in fury each moment, leaping and tossing in awful grandeur. Out of every upper window leaped the fiery darts that threatened destruction not alone to the plant of the Kerr Murray company, but to all the property in the immediate vicinity.

The heat was fearful in its intensity, and a number of houses upon the opposite side of Murray street were ablaze several times, but the fire was quickly smothered by a dash from the fire nozzles. Across the street the buildings occupied by the New Caldenwood hotel, Hoham's drug store and other business houses were also threatened for a time, and some of the more timorous occupants of the upper rooms of these buildings began removing their belongings. Within a short time, however, it became evident that the department would be able to control the flames sufficiently to remove apprehension from this source.

WALLS TOPPLED AND FELL.

Far up beneath the slate roof at the west end of the building the flames licked away the supports sustaining the immense flag staff, 192 feet in height, which had stood like a majestic sentinel above the awful spectacle. The crowd of spectators watching the tall staff saw it lean outward as if to topple upon them, and there was a scurrying to get beyond its reach. Little by little the roof supports weakened as eaten away by the flames, the flagstaff with its immense weight sank for some distance straight downward.

A moment later it toppled backward upon the burned shell which alone remained of the upper section of the building, carrying with it a large section of the roof. Simultaneously the brick wall to the west and south began to waver perceptibly; it tottered a moment and then came crashing section by section into the street below with an awful report. This removed all support from the second floor, and the western half of this, with its huge piles of burning timber, pitched downward

SLAYS HER BABES

A MASSACHUSETTS WOMAN'S HORRIBLE CRIME.

MURDERS HER SIX CHILDREN

FAILS IN ATTEMPT TO KILL HERSELF.

WAS TEMPORARILY INSANE

NOW DECLARES SHE IS SORRY FOR THE DEED.

Cold Brook, Mass., March 22.—For no reason which she is able to give, but presumably while temporarily insane, Mrs. Lizzie Naramore locked the doors of her farmhouse home near this village yesterday and brutally chopped her six children to death. Then she cut her own throat with a razor, but did not succeed in wounding herself fatally.

The deed was done in the most cold-blooded way, after apparently careful preparations. She was rational today and expressed sorrow for what she had done. She was perfectly rational, too, and acting in her usual way early yesterday morning, when her husband, Frank Naramore, left his home to go to his work in a sawmill.

There were three boys and three girls in the Naramore family, ranging in age from Ethel, the eldest, 10 years old, down to Lena, a baby girl of 10 months. The others were named Walter, Charlie, Chester and Bessie.

USED AN AX AND CLUB.

An ax and a club were used in the murders, and all of the children were horribly beaten about the head with many blows, any one of which would have killed. According to her statement to an intimate friend Mrs. Naramore began with the eldest, knocking her down with the back of the ax. She threw the body on a bed and went to another room for the next child.

That one was killed in the same way, and the bloody work was continued in the order of the children's ages. The baby was the last one killed, and the only one on which the club instead of the ax was used.

Two of the bodies were put on a bed in one room, and the other four on a bed in another room. Then Mrs. Naramore lay down across the blood-stained bodies of the four children and drew the razor across her own throat.

The crime is supposed to have been committed shortly after noon. It was discovered at 2:45, when George Thrasher, a delivery clerk for a grocery store, took some packages to the house.

THE HOUSE BARRICADED.

He found the doors locked, and could not attract anyone's attention. He noticed also that the children, who were usually playing around the yard, were not in sight. Then he looked through a window and saw big splotches of blood on the floor and the woman lying across the bed.

He hurried to the village, half a mile away, and told what he had seen, and a party quickly went to the place. An entrance was forced to the house, the doors being found to be not only locked but barred with sticks of wood.

Mrs. Naramore was very weak from loss of blood, but she was able to be taken to the village hotel, where the doctors decided after a time that she would recover. To the neighbors who called on her in the evening she told how she had killed the children, one after the other, and said that she had expected to die herself. She said, however, she was sorry for what she had done. Her husband is prostrated

KILLS HIS THREE CHILDREN.

Waterville, Me., March 22.—Jacob Dearborn, of Clinton, murdered his three children yesterday with an ax at their home in that town.

The ladies who have the Degree of Honor carnival in charge announce that there is a great interest being taken in the contest for the sideboard, there being four contestants. There will be other contests also, in which much interest is being taken. The carnival will be held at Maccabee hall, No. 107 Calhoun street, tomorrow evening, and will be preceded by a supper between the hours of 5 and 8.

The statement in a morning paper that Professor Troop would lecture this evening is an error. Professor Troop will lecture one week from tonight, March 29.

into the machine room and forward toward the street.

SOME NARROW ESCAPES.

The crowd of spectators were back not a foot too far, and amid many exciting cries they scrambled back just out of reach of the mass of debris that fell even beyond the boundaries of the street. Several squads of firemen were at work in front of the building at the moment the walls began to topple and they got out of the way of the falling walls only by the merest fraction of margin. A few feet less of distance would have buried them beneath tons of falling brick and mortar. It was at this moment that one of the hose wagons of the fire department had an extremely narrow escape. It was being driven at a frantic pace from the north past the building as the walls began falling. There was no turning backward and the trained horses, as if realizing their peril, dashed forward past the danger barely in time to avoid the brick which clattered about the wagon as it passed.

STARTLING RUMORS.

In a moment the word passed through the crowd that at least two persons had been caught in the falling building and this added to the excitement, but the rumor proved to be untrue, though in a number of instances the escapes were little short of miraculous.

Immediately adjoining the main building at the north is the storeroom of the works, a one-story brick structure, filled with completed work awaiting shipment. Except for an occasional blaze, which was quickly controlled, the flames were kept out of this storeroom, though it was deluged with water and the toppling walls smashed in a large section of the room. The damage to the completed machinery will doubtless be heavy.

THREATENED TO SPREAD.

While the main attention of the crowd was directed to the spectacular effect of the conflagration at the Calhoun street end of the building, the fire fighters at the rear along Murray street were having their share of excitement. Between the offices at the rear end of the building and the engine room adjoining is a driveway, while still further to the rear of the engine room is the boiler shop and foundry, another large structure similar in size to the one destroyed today. It was apparent the offices were doomed, and repeatedly the roof and window frames at the eastern end of the boiler shop were ignited across the space occupied by the engine room and driveway. It was necessary to give almost constant attention to this danger in order to avoid a still more extensive blaze.

CAUGHT IN THE DEBRIS.

The splendidly furnished offices of the company, as well as Mr. Cressler's private office, located at the southeast corner of the burning building, were quickly licked up, and the flames spread out over the floor above the driveway. Close to the building at the rear several details of firemen were working, and a number of Kerr Murray employes were hurrying about in an effort if possible to save some of the smaller articles from the building. Leonard Blue, foreman of the foundry, and Louis Schwarzkopf, the shipping clerk, who had been in the lower offices of the building trying to rescue a number of drawings, emerged just in time to be struck by some of the falling debris, which though not yet burning had been released by the flames near it. Mr. Blue was knocked down upon his hands and knees, but managed to quickly crawl out to a place of safety. Mr. Schwarzkopf was also slightly bruised by some of the falling timbers.

WAS UNDER CONTROL.

Before 10 o'clock it became evident that the fire was under control, and that it would be confined to the one large building, though for several hours the engines continued pumping streams of water upon the heated and burning mass.

It may be regarded as most fortunate that the entire plant of the company was not wiped away, for in addition to the burned building there is a large foundry and boiler shop, store rooms, oil house, japanning rooms, a store for gray iron castings, a smaller foundry and other smaller buildings. At numberous times several of these had caught fire from the big structure, but the force of Kerr Murray employes stationed themselves at all points to protect the property, and thus extinguished the incipient blazes before they became threatening.

LOSS $40,000 TO $50,000.

To The Sentinel A. D. Cressler, president and principal owner of the Kerr Murray Manufacturing company, stated that it was impossible to give a definite estimate of the loss until there is an opportunity to discover whether any of the equipment of the machine shop can be utilized again. Mr. Cressler said, however, that the loss would be at least $40,000 to $50,000, and that it might run higher. One of the losses most difficult to replace is the thousands of patterns of the company which it has accumulated during its long career of business. These were very valuable, and all are destroyed except a comparatively few which were in use in the foundry department.

An immense number of valuable drawings which have been produced by the force of draughtsmen were also burned, but it is believed the two large vaults in the offices have protected the books and other valuable papers of the company safely. A. J. Parisot, a bookkeeper, who was an early arrival on the scene, hurriedly placed time-books, papers, etc., as well as the typewriting machines in the vaults and closed the doors before the fire had reached the offices.

INSURANCE $32,000.

Upon the building which burned there was an insurance of $32,000, carried in the following companies: Home of New York, $5,000; Royal, $2,000; Phoenix, $5,000; Hartford, $2,500; Niagara, $2,500; German-American, $5,000; Franklin, $2,500; Liverpool, London and Globe, $5,000; North British and Mercantile, $2,500.

SHOPS WILL REBUILD.

President A. D. Cressler had been at Detroit on business for the company and only reached the city at 2 o'clock this morning. He was asleep at his home when the fire broke out, but hurried to the scene and saw thousands of dollars worth of the company's property go up in smoke. Before 10 o'clock, however, Mr. Cressler stated that the works would be rebuilt as soon as possible, and he has already begun arrangements to put a number of pattern makers at work in the second floor of the foundry building until their old quarters can be rebuilt.

HISTORY OF THE WORKS.

The Kerr Murray works were established in 1862 by Hugh Bennigan and Kerr Murray. They were small in the start, but grew rapidly and were soon occupying an important position among the industries of Fort Wayne. In 1868 Mr. Bennigan disposed of his interest to Mr. Murray and the latter gentleman then became the sole owner of the works. Mr. Murray immediately began to extend the business and in addition to the regular custom work in which the establishment had been employed, he engaged in the manufacture of gas works machinery and holders, to which he later added the manufacture of elevator machinery. Mr. Murray died May 6, 1880, and Mr. A. D. Cressler took charge of the works and ran them a year in the interest of the heirs of the deceased proprietor. Mr. Cressler had previously been employed by the concern as timekeeper, traveling salesman and general foreman and was familiar with the business. In 1881 he had the concern incorporated, with a paid up capital of $100,000. The same year one of the largest brick buildings was erected and later other additions which went to make the extensive plant were erected. The working force was correspondingly increased until it numbered over 200. The business of the firm was never better than it is at present and the loss will, therefore, be more serious than it would have been had the fire occurred at a time when there was a less demand for the products of the shop.

BELIEVE IT WAS GAS.

Chief Hilbrecht and his firemen are inclined to the opinion that the fire was due to escaping gas, and the rapidity with which the flame spread would seem to support this belief. Captain Jasper, of the chemical engine company, who was the first of the firemen to reach the spot where the fire was first seen, says he is positive gas was escaping.

One story afloat was to the effect that a workman was engaged in repairing a leak in a gas pipe this morning when the escaping gas ignited from his candle, causing an explosion, but a number of the foremen, as well as Mr. Cressler himself, discredit this version, and spontaneous combustion, an overheated journal and other causes are suggested.

The falling walls tore down a large number of telephone wires, and the lines of the district messenger companies were seriously crippled. It was 2 o'clock this afternoon before the way was cleared for the street cars to pass the point, and until that time it was necessary for passengers to transfer around the break.

A LEAGUE MEETING HERE.

President Meyer is in receipt of a telegram from Manager Watkins, of Indianapolis, stating that Indianapolis and Louisville are all right and asking that a meeting of the league be called at Indianapolis for next Tuesday. He also received a letter from Strobel, saying that while Grand Rapids looked bad, it was not altogether hopeless, and that something definite from there would be learned on Monday. President Meyer will call the meeting on Tuesday as suggested, but it will be held in Fort Wayne instead of Indianapolis. This is a case where the mountain will have to come to Mahomet. Further than this there is nothing new in the base ball situation.

ADAMS IS LOCATED.

Superintendent of Police Gorsline this afternoon received a letter from the chief of police of Boston, enclosing a photograph of V. R. Adams, and asking whether he was wanted here. Adams is the slick rascal who did some amazing stunts along charity lines. Here he got the Associated Charities interested in some entertaining schemes and succeeded in accumulating a neat little sum by his swindling operations and got away with it. He also operated at Indianapolis and escaped punishment there on account of the prominence of several families whom he had implicated in his nefarious swindling scheme. At Boston he forged a check for $3,000 and is being held under $4,000 bail.

ADVICE FROM MR. CARNEGIE

HE WILL GIVE INSTRUCTIONS ABOUT PAYMENT.

Council Must First Send Resolutions Providing for Maintenance of Library.

The welcome intelligence received a week ago that Andrew Carnegie, the millionaire philanthropist, had agreed to donate $75,000 to Fort Wayne for a public library building, was hailed with great joy by the delighted populace. The next question which naturally arose was when this donation would be made. Mr. Carnegie, as is well known, is now in Europe, or at least in Great Britain, where he will remain for an indefinite period, and there was considerable general speculation as to whether he would take up the library question any further until after his return to America. This problem has, however, been happily settled in Mr. Carnegie's usual decisive and prompt manner. When the acknowledgment of his letter guaranteeing the donation asked for on certain conditions was forwarded to him, the question was asked, what further steps were necessary on the part of the city in order to realize on his beneficence. A letter received by Mayor Scherer this forenoon puts the situation squarely up to the city. Following is a copy of the letter:

"New York, March 20, 1901.—Mayor Scherer, Fort Wayne, Ind.: Dear Sir—Yours 16. When you send resolutions of council's guaranteeing maintenance, Mr. Carnegie will give instructions about payment. Mr. Anderson, of the Carnegie Institute library, Pittsburg, will be glad to give you expert advice on plans if you submit them to him.

"Respectfully yours,
"James Bertram,
"Private Secretary."

There is not much to the letter, but it is plenty and indicates that Mr. Carnegie's absence from the country will have nothing to do with payment of the donation as soon as the city gives the proper guaranty stipulated in the conditions of the gift. The city council has not had a meeting since the receipt of Mr. Carnegie's first letter, but at the meeting next Tuesday the matter will be officially brought before the fathers and the proper resolutions and ordinances, if necessary, will be drafted and passed to assure the philanthropist that Fort Wayne gladly accepts the gift under the conditions and is swift to make the provisions necessary for the immediate consummation of the transaction. The city attorney is already looking up the legal points necessary to be covered to complete the city's assurance to Mr. Carnegie.

Dr. J. A. Lomas was called to Dixon, Ohio, this morning to diagnose a suspected case of smallpox. The sufferer is Ora Wise, a blind man, who resides with his mother and brother. Dr. Lomas says the case is a most malignant one and there is little likelihood of the patient recovering. Quarantine was raised from the home of John Rose, of Springfield township, this morning, where Mr. and Mrs. Rose have been very ill from the disease.

SOUSA AND HIS BAND.

Sousa and his peerless band were at the Temple last night, where they pleased an audience which nearly tested the capacity of the house. The balcony was packed and all except a few of the dollar and a half seats downstairs were filled. A criticism of the concert would be superfluous; when you say that it was Sousa's band little remains to be said. The always genial director was particularly generous last night and cheerfully and gracefully responded to the encores which were enthusiastically given. The responses were usually his own compositions or those of Mr. Pryor, one of the latter, "A Coontown Contest," being particularly novel and attractive. Of the program in general it might be said that it was not quite so popular in character as most of the prevous programs rendered here have been. Mr. Sousa is gradually inclining more to the classical order than he did of yore, although the selections last night were not of that extremely ponderous character which marked the Thomas concert of a week ago. Arthur Pryor, the clever young Missourian, who stands today the world's premier trombonist, was not at his best last night, although his performance was so nearly perfect that slight imperfections were not noticed. He has been ill for several days and is suffering from a very severe cold. Miss Duffield, the soprano, and Miss Bucklin, the violin virtuoso, both acquitted themselves with great credit, while the ensembles of the band were simply perfection in military band work. Sousa's band grows in favor with each visit and is distinctively the most popular musical organization that has ever visited Fort Wayne. The aggregation left this morning for Kalamazoo, where a concert will be given this afternoon, and this evening it will appear at Grand Rapids.

THE HEALTH HABIT.

Just as Easy to Form as Any Other.

We do not deliberately form our pet habits, but they ar unconsciously acquired, and grow as we grow, and by the time we learn thy are hurting us, we find them too strong to be easily broken.

Then, why not form a good habit, a habit which will counteract the many bad ones, in other words contract the unfashionable habit of being always well?

The best health habit to get into is to have and keep a vigorous stomach; if you have a healthy digestion you can drink your beloved coffee, smoke your favorite brand of tobacco with little or no harm; the mischief begins when these things are forced upon the unfaithful stomach, without any assistance.

Form the habit of taking after meals some harmless but efficient digestive which will relieve the stomach of so much extra work.

Nature furnishes us with such digestives and when they are combined in such a pleasant preparation as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, they give the overworked stomach just the necessary assistance to secure perfect digestion without any of the harmful effects of cathartics and similar drugs.

The habit of taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals is as necessary to the weak stomach as food itself, and indeed to get the benefit from food eaten, nothing better and certainly nothing safer can be used.

Many families consider Stuart's Tablets as essential in the house as knives and forks.

They consist entirely of natural digestive principles without the effect or characteristics of drugs; they have no cathartic action, but simply go to work on the food eaten and digest it.

Take into account your bad habits and the expense they entail and then invest fifty cents in a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and see if your digestion for the next month is not vastly improved.

Ask the clerk in any drug store the name of the most successful and popular stomach remedy and he will say Stuart's.

HARRISON INSURED FOR $40,000

Indianapolis, March 22.—Ex-President Harrison left $40,000 life insurance. This fact was announced last night by the president of the Union Trust company, which is executor of General Harrison's will. He said:

"General Harrison had four policies of $10,000 each in force. The box containing the policies has not been opened yet. Our appraisement of the Harrison estate gives its total value at $380,000. This includes all real estate, railroad bonds, stock in the Union Trust company, the Law building here and other securities."

Mr. Eitel was asked concerning a report that Mrs. Harrison had signified her intention to take the widow's third, rather than accept the specified bequests under the will. He said there was not the slightest justification for such a story.

Perhaps the only way the country an shake Addicks is to disannex elaware. It would be losing little s to territory and a good deal as Addicks.

Mr. Bryan has offered $5 reward or anything Mr. Cleveland has said owing how to apply democratic principles to modern issues. This important because it is the first time Mr. Bryan has indicated that he sets any value upon what Mr. Cleveland says.

Certain unfeeling gentlemen of the Nebraska legislature have, so to speak, put the heels of their contempt on that good man and fatherly statesman, Hon. Marcus A. Hanna, of Ohio. Mr. Hanna had appealed in the name of the administration and the republican national committee to the gentlemen aforesaid to settle the senatorial deadlock in Nebraska by submitting to a devious caucus action and electing D. E. Thompson, the caucus nominee. Mr. Hanna's request was answered by wire and boiled down and cooled off means that Mr. Hanna and the national committee may mind their own business, a privilege certain Nebraska legislators are reserving for themselves. It is too bad—too too bad, indeed, for Delaware lately gave the chairman of the republican national committee another such a jolt in the wind.

The auditorium cannot be built without money and there will be no money unless all the people unite to provide it. There are above twenty-five thousand men and women in Fort Wayne who are able to subscribe for some amount of stock from one dollar to a thousand dollars and more. If all who are able to own stock in the auditorium will take the one step necessary to possess the stock there will be neither question nor delay about the building of the auditorium. Resolve at once that you will be a stockholder in the auditorium, then carefully ascertain how much stock you can afford to take and when the solicitor calls you will be ready to do your part promptly, generously and with the good sense and prudence that should characterize the making of all business investments.

It may be that Governor Odell, of New York, is ambitious to dethrone Thomas C. Platt and mount the seat of political power of the "easy boss," but for the present it is well to credit the governor with honest motives and courageous independence. At all events, he has defied Platt and it looks as though Platt would have to swallow the defiance with what grace he can. Governor Odell has announced and repeatedly affirmed that he will veto the police bill Platt is trying to foist on Greater New York, and it is evident that he means what he says. It is a good sign, a happy omen, that promises much to more than the people of New York. When Governor Odell was nominated he was branded as distinctly a Platt candidate and it was sincerely believed that the imperial boss of Empire state republican politics would as thoroughly control executive action as though he were himself governor. There is good augury in Governor Odell's early disappointment of the prophecies that he would be a mere tool of the boss who made him governor. It now depends on how well he holds out against Platt's threats to give him early political burial whether or not he rids his state of the almost tyrannical domination of a man who is an embodiment of most that is evil in our politics.

TWO CASES OF INSANITY

ONE FORT WAYNE PATIENT ESCAPES, ANOTHER DEPORTED.

James Rhine Re-taken at His Father's Home—Catherine Wendling Sent Back to Germany.

The sheriff was this morning notified that James Rhine, an insane patient from this county, had escaped from the eastern hospital at Richmond on the 18th inst. and was still at large, and was supposed to have returned to his home in Fort Wayne. The sheriff sent two deputies to Rhine's home just outside the city limits in the east end and found the escaped man there. He tried to hide but made no resistance, and will be returned to the asylum tomorrow.

A special to The Sentinel from Richmond announces that Catherine Wendling, a patient from this county, had been discharged and turned over to the commissioner of immigration of the port of New York for deportation to Germany, she being an alien and dependant.

Catherine Wendling was adjudged insane on the 17th of December by a commission consisting of Justices Bullerman and Tancey and Doctors Calvin and Rosenthal. She had come to this city from Germany about three weeks previous to visit a religious sister at St. Joseph hospital. She was taken ill and was finally adjudged insane. She is about twenty-three years of age and rather prepossessing.

The aged mother of Mrs. Noble, of 33 Michigan avenue, fell down the cellar steps at her home this morning. No bones were broken, but the lady suffered painful injuries.

TO ACCOMMODATE those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price including the spraying tube is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Philip L. Potter, for twenty-nine years a resident of this city, died at 9:30 o'clock this morning at his home, No. 140 Jackson street, from kidney trouble, after an illness extending over a period of four weeks. Mr. Potter had been a sufferer from the disease which caused his death for more than a year, although acute symptoms did not develop until about a month ago.

The only other surviving relative is a sister, Mrs. Belle Crawford, of Middleton, Ohio. Mrs. Potter died about two years ago.

WAS FIRST POLICE CAPTAIN

CONRAD PENS DIES AT HIS KANSAS HOME.

Former Prominent Citizen Who Served Fort Wayne in Public Capacity Years Ago.

Conrad Pens died at his home in Humboldt, Kan., yesterday, aged about 78 years. The news of his demise was conveyed here in a telegram to his daughter, Mrs. Adam Zeigler, of Maple avenue. Mr. Pens was a former well known citizen of Fort Wayne. He came here when a young man for the purpose of working upon the canal, which was then in course of construction, and resided here until 1877, when he moved to Kansas. He was married here to Miss Hobrock, a well known young lady in early days, who has some brothers residing in Allen county now. She died many years ago and Mr. Pens married again and his second wife and nine children are still living. Mrs. Zeigler, of this city, and Frederick Pens, of Huntington, are the only members of the family residing in Indiana, the other children being residents of Kansas. The deceased was a member of one of the very first volunteer fire companies of Fort Wayne. He took an active part in politics in an early day and was the first police captain in the city. He also served two or three terms as assessor of Wayne township. The remains will be interred at Humboldt.

AGREE ON THE FRANCHISE

GRANTS TO SOUTHWESTERN ROAD DETERMINED.

Board of Works Straightens Out Some Involved Features—City Hall News.

The board of works met in regular session Thursday night and held a lengthy consultation with the Southwestern railway company's representatives. The conference was in regard to the franchises asked for by the company to extend its lines to the southwestern and northwestern parts of the city, and, as was related in Thursday's issue, there occurred some irregularities which had to be straightened before the board could pass upon the matter. One of the differences was concerning a right of way through private property in the south part of the city, but all the matters were amicably adjusted and will be reduced to writing in the contract, and it is expected that the franchise will be ready to be finally presented to the council for reference at the next meeting on Tuesday night. One point agreed upon was the duration of the franchise inside the city, which was made for a term of twenty-five years, while the original franchise for the main line was for fifty years. It was feared that the stipulation reducing the life of the franchise might affect the entire line, but the city attorney arranged the phraseology so that no such an effect would result. It was further agreed that the entire line from Huntington to the corner of Calhoun and Columbia streets should be completed before any of the branch line franchises should become effective. The company made no objection to this provision, which was a sufficient evidence of entire good faith on the part of the company. Compensation to the city from the inter-municipal lines was also discussed, but not finally settled. It is likely, however, that the terms will eventually be arranged on a basis of nothing for the first year, $250 per year for the next two years, $500 for the ensuing five years, and $1,000 a year thereafter during the life of the franchise.

The petition for a sidewalk on Clay street and on Columbia street, forming the approaches to the Columbia street bridge, was pigeonholed for future reference, a motion to have plans and specifications therefor being defeated. Other petitions for opening Pierce street and Meyer avenue, from Fairfield avenue to South Wayne avenue; for sidewalks on Indiana avenue, and for reducing the width of Barr street, were filed.

Resolutions were passed for building sewers between John and Gay streets, in the alley south of Maumee avenue, in the extreme east end, and in an alley east of Walton avenue, from Maumee avenue to Alliger street.

Louis Curdes was given permission to build sidewalks around his own property under private contract, and the Paul Pulley works and others remonstrated against the building of sidewalks on Sixth street.

The clerk was instructed to ask the comptroller and council for an additional appropriation for the street lighting fund to provide for lamps at the following places: Calhoun street and Creighton avenue, Broadway and Creighton avenue, Calhoun and Sixth streets, Brackenridge and Ewing streets, and Baker and Harrison streets.

SHOCKING SAM SHOCKLEY

HE BREAKS INTO THE POLICE COURT AGAIN.

Has Disposed of the Reptiles and Other Things in His Zoo and Has Snow Storms.

Yesterday was the first day of spring, according to the almanac, and a bad day it was. It was too stormy for people to get about with comfort, according to the story of Mr. Samuel Shockley, who made his bow to the mayor this morning for the second time in two days. Samuel was up yesterday for the same offense and was given an hour to leave town. Last evening he was found again, howling drunk, but has disposed of his menagerie and had no animals in stock. He gave as an explanation for his failure to reach the city limits on time that it was too stormy for anybody to get around. He will be protected from the storm for the next twenty-one days.

Daniel Hiatt and Ella Hiatt, his wife, were arraigned for making a rough house at the booze emporium of Ed Keever, on East Columbia street. The pair dropped into the place last night and after loading up with a few drinks, varied the monotony by heaving spittoons and things at the mirror and other furniture. Mr. Hiatt admitted flatly that he was drunk, but Mrs. Hiatt said she had taken only a drink or two of whisky and was not drunk, but became excited. When she got on the street she missed her pocketbook, and going back into the saloon, she accused Mrs. Keever of stealing it. Mrs. Keever called her a liar, whereupon Mrs. Hiatt made a long-arm reach for her solar plexus. The ladies mixed it up for a minute or two before the spittoon variation was introduced. Meanwhile the police came in and arrested the belligerent strangers. The mayor sized up the situation and after sparring around a few hundred hotly at them for 45 each, Andrew Draker, a colored gentleman and a coke car tourist, was run in for train climbing. He said he was a cabinetmaker en route from Pittsburg to Chicago to hold down a job. The mayor asked him whether his job would wait on him for about eleven days and Andrew went over for that period.

Charles Clark, an individual with a list of ailments as long as a hospital record, was arrested for peddling spectacles without a license. He went over for eleven days in default of the ready cash.

A clerk at Dreier Bros.' drug store reported the loss of a bicycle to the police last night. The gentleman has suffered similar losses before and each time it was discovered that his wheel had been taken by a friend as a "joke."

Letter Carrier Heller is mourning the loss of a pet beagle hound.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, March 22.—There was a fair trade in wheat, but the early trend was against holders. Liverpool was easy, the weather seasonable, northwest receipts were liberal and Argentine shipments heavy. May opened ⅛c to ⅜@½c lower at 76⅛c to 75⅞c. This decline brought out stop-loss orders and May further declined to 75⅝c. Local receipts were 59 cars, 1 of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 433 cars against 346 last week and 480 a year ago.

The corn trade early was a local affair. May opened ⅛c to a shade lower at 41⅛@41¼c on good weather and in sympathy with wheat and declined on local selling to 40⅞c. Receipts were 221 cars, 31 of contract grade.

Oats were quiet and easier with other markets. May opened unchanged to a shade down at 24¾@24⅞c and declined to 24¾c. Receipts were 166 cars.

May pork suffered a further break during the fore part of the session. The opening was unchanged to 5c higher at $16.35 to $16.40. Longs offered to secure profits and a sharp decline to $15.80 followed. At this point the market steadied and reacted to $16.00. May lard opened unchanged at $7.87½, sold a shade higher and then reacted to $7.80. May ribs opened 2½@5c up at $7.80 and advanced to $7.90@7.92½. The opening steadiness was due to light hog receipts.

FILIPINOS SURRENDER.

Manila, March 22.—4:45 p. m.—General Fullon and 180 of his command, armed with rifles, surrendered to Colonel Scott, of the Forty-fourth volunteer infantry, at Antique, Island of Panay, today.

SURRENDERS TO POLICE.

Eureka, Cal., March 22.—John L. Wood has surrendered to the police here and declares that he is wanted in Michigan for the embezzlement of $1,200 while has was treasurer of Goodar township, Ogemaw county. Wood said he put $1,200 into his lumber business, believing he had ample assets to cover the amount taken. When a call for funds came in July last his failure to collect debts due him made it impossible to meet the obligation.

HONOR PRESIDENT HADLEY.

San Francisco, March 22.—Prof. Arthur Hadley, president of Yale university, was the guest of honor at a banquet given by the Yale Alumni association. He was accorded a hearty welcome. Addresses were made by Professor Wheeler, of the University of California; President Jordan, of Stanford; Mayor Phelan and others. A reception was given President and Mrs. Hadley at Hearst hall, Berkeley, this afternoon, by President Benjamin Ide Wheeler.

SHRINERS IN HONOLULU.

Honolulu, March 14, via Victoria, B. C., March 22.—The steamship Sierra arrived yesterday with the visiting Shriners from Grand Rapids, Mich., and other places, aboard. The run was made in the quick time of five days and ten hours. The reception committee from the local Shriners chartered a tug and met the steamer outside the harbor. A large crowd was at the dock. The excursionists were escorted to automobiles and hacks and conveyed to hotels. No special program for the entertaining of the guests had been arranged, the idea being for the local Shriners to entertain the visitors in an informal way. On Sunday, however, the Shriners will attend the native feast of Luau given by the local institution. A ball is to be given this week in honor of the visitors, who will also attend a theatrical performance. A local temple will be installed at this place during the visit. The governor's band gave a concert last night in honor of the Shriners.

DISCREDIT A CONFESSION.

Omaha, Neb., March 22.—Chief of Police Donahue, when shown the Associated Press dispatch from Dallas, stating that H. E. Henderson, a prisoner in the Texas city, had confessed complicity in the Cudahy kidnaping, said he had no information on the subject. At police headquarters it was declared that Henderson probably is booked for a long term in Texas and took a very common method with crooks under such circumstances. Henderson was arrested at Dallas previously—early in February. At that time a picture of Pat Crowe was found in his trunk. The discovery led to an investigation at that time, which, however, was without important results.

TROOPS ARE WITHDRAWN.

Pekin, March 22.—The troops on both sides of the disputed land at Tien Tsin have been withdrawn and all danger of a fracas is ended. The opinion of the British is that the promptness of General Barrow in calling up the marines from Taku prevented a collision. The British report that prior to the arrival of the marines sentries were supplied from the Madras pioneers, who for several days were surrounded by crowds of foraging soldiers, mostly French, who assailed them with all kinds of abuse, calling them "coolies." The Madrassees were becoming restive, when the marines arrived at night and relieved them, and it was only when daylight appeared that the Russians discovered the change.

SHOP AND RAIL

BRAKEMAN GALLIGHER RECEIVES $1,200.

LOST HIS FOOT AT KNOX

AND CAME UNDER THE DISABILITY RULE.

WABASH CONDUCTOR INJURED

ARM BROKEN AND HURT INTERNALLY.

A little incident illustrating the benefits to be derived from a membership in one of the railway brotherhoods occurred last evening. It was the receipt by James Galligher of a draft for $1,200, in payment of a total disability policy held by that gentleman in the insurance branch of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen. Mr. Galligher was a Nickel Plate brakeman and lost a foot in an accident at Knox, Ind., last August. He had been a member of the brotherhood a little over a year and had paid in premiums and dues less than $25.

A MAGNIFICENT CAR.

One of the finest dining cars in the service of any railroad is now in service on the Nickel Plate. The exterior appearance is not different to a noticeable extent from other dining cars, but the interior is far above most of the dining cars in daily use in this part of the country. It is finished in light mahogany and inlaid with lighter wood, which was previously colored in hot sand to harmonize with the mahogany. The effect is most beautiful and pleasing to the eye. The domed roof of the car is elegantly fitted with ventilating windows, panels and trimmings, while through its center is a row of artificial lights. A handsomely arranged cluster of lights is also placed above each of the dining tables. This car is numbered 102 and it is the first of the two or three that the company has ordered from the Barney & Smith company. The others will be out of the shop in a few days and will take their places in the service on the road. Last evening a party of newspaper men—a representative from each of the five dailies in the city—enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. C. C. Denton, dining car superintendent of the Nickel Plate, and Passenger Agent C. A. Asterlin on this magnificent car, leaving the city on train No. 3, at 4:30 o'clock. En route west dinner was served, the following being the menu:

Cocktail
Celery Blue Points Olives
Broiled White Fish
String Potatoes
Claret
Tenderloin Steak, with Mushrooms
French Fried Potatoes
Broiled Quail on Toast
Tomato and Lettuce Salad
Strawberries and Cream
Assorted Cake
Crackers Roquefort Cheese
Coffee Cigars

The car is presidede over by Conductor J. W. Hays, a gentleman who has had a vast experience in that line and who possesses natural attributes calculated to fit him for such a position. His chef and attendants at the tables are also well trained and fitted for the work they are called upon to perform. The party left the train at Tippecanoe and boarded train No. 4, arriving home at 8:30 o'clock. En route to the city they indulged in a smoke and also partook of some refreshments.

BEEF FOR EXPORT.

A train of thirty-seven refrigerator cars, loaded with dressed beef from the Armour packing house in Chicago and hauled by two engines, passed through the city, over the Nickel Plate, at 9:30 o'clock last night. This meat is for export and it is being rushed to the seaboard with the speed of a passenger train. It is probably one of the most valuable single shipments passing through the city this winter. A dealer in meats placed an estimate of the cost of this shipment aboard ship in New York harbor at $300,000.

CHARGE OF RATE CUTTING.

Pittsburg, March 22.—An important meeting of representatives of railroads out of Pittsburg having Cleveland passenger traffic, is in session here today. Considerable friction over Cleveland business between the roads has resulted and efforts to establish harmony have been ineffecutal. It has been charged that rate cutting has been indulged in and considerable bad feeling has been engendered. Efforts have been made to bring all those in authority out at today's meeting and indications point to a peaceful solution.

WABASH'S NEW ROAD.

The officers of the Wabash who attended the railway meeting in Toledo yesterday returned to their homes in Lafayette and St. Louis last night, passing through this city on train No. 3. All the preliminary work has been attended to and there is nothing that can interfere with the construction of the proposed railway extensions and connecting lines. The Fort Wayne and Detroit line will be only twenty-five miles long, according to the latest survey. Of it the Peru Chronicle says: "R. P. Vandusen, civil engineer of the Wabash railway, and his force of men completed the Wabash survey of the new connecting line between New Haven and Butler last night. Mr. Vandusen states that he found the proposed route of twenty-five miles almost a straight line with the highest grade at any point but sixteen feet to the mile. He also states that with but one exception he did not encounter a single person who objected to the line running through his farm. The plat and survey will now be submitted to the officers of the road and it is supposed contracts will be let at once for the construction of the line."

TIPTON PLEADS GUILTY.

Buffalo, March 22.—John E. Tipton, late secretary of the Switchmen's Union of North America, today pleaded guilty to an indictment charging him with grand larceny in the second degree. It was one of three indictments against him in connection with the alleged "robbery" of the union's office in the Prudential building on March 4 last. Sentence will be pronounced Tuesday. The extreme penalty is five years' imprisonment.

CONDUCTOR BADLY HURT.

Relatives in this city have received word of an accident which happened to Frank Keplinger, a conductor on the Chicago-Detroit division of the Wabash road. He had his left arm broken in two places and sustained internal injuries of a painful character. The particulars of the accident are not known here. The unfortunate man is a brother of J. A. Keplinger, the well known passenger engineer on the Pittsburg road.

G. A. R. RATE FIXED.

An important meeting of railway men was held at Cleveland yesterday, at which the one-cent a mile rate promised for the Grand Army of the Republic encampment, to be held in Cleveland next September, was formally promulgated. This fixes the railroad rate absolutely and finally. In St. Louis January 21 last the governing committee of the Grand Army accepted the rate and the encampment was located at Cleveland. The General Passenger association appointed a committee to fix rate, formulate ticket conditions and make other arrangements to govern for the thirty-fifth Grand Army encampment. This action governs the rate in territory going and returning from and to all points in Central Passenger association territory. The rate will also be tendered to the connecting lines and outside territory for basing purposes.

Machinist William Vachon, of the Pittsburg, reported at the shops for work this morning, accompanied by a box of cigars for the boys. Yesterday Mrs. Vachon presented her husband with a fine boy, the first in the family, and the cigars were a token of his joy over the advent of the little one.

A Warm Suggestion

a small heating stove that can be fired with a little wood now and then, is lots better than keeping a furnace fired up during these days when it is chilly but not really cold. It will save a great deal in fuel, be easier to regulate, and can be readily taken down and stored when not wanted. A furnace isn't a complete heating outfit. Our Columbia Air Tight is just the stove you want to do this work satisfactorily, and the price is only $2.25 for small size. That is certainly a good investment. An ounce of reality is worth a pound of romance, and the reality of our advertised values is usually recognized.

A MORPHINE FIEND

SHOOTS TWO MEN IN A NEW YORK RESORT.

NEITHER FATALLY INJURED

THE DEADLY ASSAULT QUITE UNPROVOKED.

ASSAILANT IS A STUDENT

BOTTLES OF DRUGS FOUND ON HIS PERSON.

New York, March 22—A morphine-crazed admirer of Minnie Seligman, the actress, bought a box for himself at the Broadway theater for the first night of a new play last night, attracted the attention of everyone in the play house by his demonstrations of infatuation with the actress, followed her to the Pabst rathskeller and shot five times at her and her escorts, Alexander W. Dingwell, manager of Jacob Litt's theatrical enterprises, and John G. Leffingwell, of the Broadway theater.

Dingwell is in Roosevelt hospital with a wound in the back. Leffingwell got a scratch in the left arm. One bullet went through the actress' dress. The man was arrested and arraigned in police court, where he said he was Robert H. Moulton, a Columbia college student, of Springfield, Tenn.

He was held in $5.000 bail for further examination.

Moulton had morphine in tablets and in solution in his possession when taken to the station house. He claims he does not know what he was doing when he fired the shots.

IS A MORPHINE FIEND.

Moulton said he was a user of morphine and that he took a good deal of the drug yesterday. He said he remembers going to the Broadway theater and remembers the second act of the play there, but nothing more.

He also remembers coming out, but asserts he does not remember anything that happened from that time until he found himself in the patrol wagon.

It was said at the hospital that Dingwall was resting easily.

DINGWALL WELL KNOWN.

Chicago, March 22.—George Warren, treasurer of McVickers' theater, said, when told of the shooting of Dingwall and Leffingwell:

"Mr. Dingwall has been with Mr. Litt about fifteen years, acting as general manager for him as well as manager of the Broadway theater. His family resides, I believe, in Milwaukee. Mr. Leffingwell was an advance agent for Mr. Litt and at various times has acted in that capacity for Mme. Modjeska and for Otis Skinner. I understand he was wealthy in former years, enjoying an annual income of $70,000. He once owned a newspaper in Hartford, Conn., and was known in every important city in the country. Dingwall also was a newspaper man in his younger days and worked on a Milwaukee paper."

GOOD REPUTE AT HOME.

Nashville, Tenn., March 22.—Robert M. Moulton is the youngest son of the late Frank Moulton, at one time a well known grain dealer in this city. Moulton was born in this city and resided here until about ten years ago, when his father moved to Memphis, where he died.

Robert is about twenty-four years of age and has been at Columbia college several years, pursuing the study of architecture. His mother and other relatives reside at Springfield, Tenn. A brother lives in this city.

Moulton's hearing is defective in consequence of an attack of scarlet fever. In this city Moulton has many friends, who are at a loss to account for his escapade, and declare he is a person of the most kindly disposition.

FIRE IN A GROCERY.

The grocery and meat market of G. W. Spangler, at Hoagland avenue and Pontiac street, was damaged to an extent of $400 by fire shortly after midnight. The blaze started in a rear room which is used for rendering lard, and the rear portion of the building was badly damaged. The loss is covered by insurance.

MEETINGS FORBIDDEN.

St. Petersburg, March 22.—In connection with the riots here the prefect has issued a decree forbidding meetings and assemblages in the streets and squares. Persons infringing this legislation are liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months and a fine not exceeding five hundred roubles.

TAKE A GERMAN LOAN.

Berlin, March 22.—A syndicate of leading Berlin and provincial banks, headed by the Imperial bank, has taken over an imperial three per cent. loan of three hundred million marks, which will be issued early in April.

AUDIENCE WITH EMPEROR.

Berlin, March 22.—Emperor William today received in audience the officers of the reichstag and diet who expressed the indignation experienced by the members of their respective houses at the recent outrage committed on his majesty at Bremen and conveyed the congratulations of the members at his majesty's escape.

NEW STOCKHOLDERS GET IN

HOME TELEPHONE COMPANY WILL BE GAINER.

Fort Wayne Men Buy Eastern Holdings in National Long Distance Company Lines.

When the annual meeting of the National Telephone and Telegraph company is held April 2 there will be an important change of ownership of a majority of its stock which has heretofore been held in the east by the Telegraph and Cable company of America.

This stock, embracing something like $115,000, will pass into the hands of Fort Wayne people, many of whom are already interested in the Home Telephone company, and it means a closer alliance between the local and long distance independent lines.

The stock has all been subscribed for and is now being issued to the new holders. The National company has been gradually extending its territory over Indiana, Ohio and Michigan, and with its service connections reached more than 1,000 towns and cities in the three states. The deal has been in progress for some weeks, and its completion will be of immense value to the Home company, for while that organization is not interested in the purchase directly, so many of its stockholders will now be interested in the long distance lines as to practically insure a close relationship between them, and to guarantee a much larger field of connections for the Home company.

ABOUT THE COURT HOUSE.

In the report of the Schultz divorce case yesterday the alimony should have read as being $20 and $10 per month for successive periods of five years each.

Louis Brames sues William Hoch on account for $125.

In the divorce case of Englert vs. Englert, a motion to modify the judgment was overruled by Judge Aiken.

The divorce case of Boby vs. Boby was dismissed in the superior court.

Tomorrow is the last day of the January term of the superior court.

F. X. Miller has commenced suit against Herman Heersche for $1,000 damages for injuries received in an assault made on him several days ago. The trouble arose over a garnishee case of Heersche against Miller and Heerschee at the time was fined for assault and battery in a justice's court.

THREE NAMES GO IN.

Messrs. William Geake and C. S. Bash, republicans, and Charles Scheimann, democrat, have been commended to Governor Durbin as the choice of Fort Wayne republicans for police commissioners. The governor informed the local leaders that he would not undertake to settle the factional troubles here and that an agreement must be reached, which has accordingly been done. This disposes of Mr. Strauss, who was chosen at a republican meeting some days ago for membership on the commission.

MRS. NATION MAY COME.

Mrs. Carrie Nation, the vigorous Kansas apostle of temperance, may lecture in Fort Wayne the latter part of next week. This afternoon Manager Stouder, of the Masonic Temple, received a telegram from Mrs. Nation's agent asking for a date in this city, and they are now negotiating for her appearance in this city.

COULD NOT AGREE

THE TERMS WHICH THE BOERS HAVE REJECTED.

CORRESPONDENCE PUBLISHED

INDEPENDENCE OF REPUBLICS NOT DISCUSSED.

THE STATUS OF PRISONERS

MILNER COULD NOT GUARANTEE LIVES OF SOME.

London, March 22.—The parliamentary papers giving details of the negotiations between the Boer commander-in-chief, Generla Botha, and Lord Kitchener, commanding the British forces in South Africa, issued today, began with a telegram from Sir Alfred Milner to Colonial Secretary Chamberlain. The dispatch is dated Pretoria, February 22, and states that Mrs. Botha had returned from communicating with her husband, bringing a letter in reply to Sir Alfred Milner's verbal offering to meet General Botha as a means of ending the war, on the express understanding that he would not discuss the question of the independence of the Transvaal and the Orange River colony.

Mrs. Botha assured Sir Alfred Milner that the letter was written with that point clearly understood. General Botha referred the matter to his generals and it was stated that the meeting will probably take place at Middleburg.

HOPED IT WAS GENUINE.

Mr. Chamberlain replied that he was glad to hear of General Botha's desire to treat and hoped it was genuine.

"He will find us," said the colonial secretary, "anxious to meet him on all points affecting his individual position."

On February 27 Sir Alfred Milner cabled Lord Kitchener informing him that General Botha had written that he would be in Pretoria at 10 o'clock a. m., February 28.

A dispatch from Lord Kitchener to the war office, dated Pretoria, February 28, reports a long interview with General Botha, who showed a very good feeling and seemed anxious for peace. He asked for information, which he said he would submit to his government, the generals and the people. If they agreed, he would visit the Orange River colony and get them to agree. Should all then hand in their arms, it would finish the war. He said they could go on for some time and he was not sure he would be able to bring about peace without independence.

INDEPENDENCE A DANGER.

"I declined to discuss such a point," said Lord Kitchener, "and said a modified form of independence would be most dangerous and would lead to war in the future.

"Replying to General Botha's inquiries I informed him that when hostilities ceased the military would be replaced by a crown colony administration, consisting of a nominated executive and an elected assembly to advise him, followed after a period by a representative government.

"The Boers would be licensed to have rifles to protect themselves against the natives, the Dutch and English languages were to have equal rights ,Kaffirs would not have the franchise until after the representative government had been granted, the Orange Free State laws for Kaffirs would be considerd good, church preprty, public trusts and orphan funds would not be touched, no war tax would be imposed on farmers, assistance would be given to repair the burned farms and to enable the farmers to start afresh and colonists who had joined the republics should be disfranchised.

SILENT AS TO PRISONERS.

"General Botha generally seemed satisfied with these conditions."

Among the questions to which Lord Kitchener apparently did not reply were when the war prisoners would return and regarding the taking over of debts of the republics, including those legally contracted since the beginning of the war.

General Botha was reported to be making a strong point of this. He referred to notes which had been issued, amounting to less than a million pounds.

Lord Kitchener arranged to communicate Botha's views to his government.

All that he said was qualified by being subject to confirmation from the home government.

THE REPLY TO BOTHA.

On March 3 Sir Alfred Milner cabled Lord Kitchener, suggesting the following replies to General Botha.

"I beg to inform you that on the occasion of hostilities and the complete surrender of arms, ammunition, cannon and munitions in the hands of the burghers in the field at the government depots or elsewhere, his majesty's government is prepared at once to grant amnesty in the Transvaal and Orange River colony for all bonafide acts of war during the hostilities, as well as to move the governments of Cape Colony and Natal to similar action, qualified by the disfranchisement of any British subjects implicated in the war. The military prisoners at St. Helena, Ceylon and elsewhere, on complete surrender, shall be brought back to their country.

TO ABOLISH MARTIAL LAW.

"Military law shall at once be replaced by a civil administration, but it is the desire of his majesty's government as soon as circumstances will permit to establish a representative government.

"On the cessation of hostilities a high court, independent of the executive, shall be established to administer the laws. Land, church property, trusts and orphan funds shall be respected.

"The English and Dutch languages shall be taught in the public schools and allowed in the law courts.

"The legal debts of the state to the amount of £1,000,000 shall be paid, even if contracted during hostilities, to the extent a creditor prove he has given value.

"The government does not intend to extend the franchise to Kaffirs in the Transvaal and Orange River colony before a representative government is granted."

The conditions regarding assistance to the farmers, fire arms, etc., are the same as those in Lord Kitchener's replies to General Botha.

LIABLE TO DEATH.

Sir Alfred Milner adds that he agrees to the above, except as to the desire for modification regarding British subjects in Cape Colony and Natal in the Boer army, who, if they returned to those colonies, will be liable to death under the laws of those colonies passed to meet circumstances arising in war. He added:

"While I am willing to concede much in order to strengthen General Botha in inducing the people to submit, amnesty for the rebels is not, in my opinion, a point which his majesty's government can afford to concede. I think it would have a deplorable effect upon Cape Colony and Natal to obtain peace by such a concession."

Mr. Chamberlain, in a reply dated March 6, directs Lord Kitchener to modify the terms on a number of points. Eventually Lord Kitchener reported to the war office, under date of Pretoria, March 20, that he had written General Botha the terms the government was prepared to adopt.

MODIFIED TERMS.

These were the same as already given, except in the following particulars:

"The government cannot undertake any liabilities regarding the debts of the late republics, but is prepared, as an act of grace, to set aside a million pounds to repay the inhabitants for goods requisitioned by the republican governments. If the claims after adjustment exceed £1,000,000 they are liable to reduction pro rata. The Kaffir franchise when given shall be so limited as to secure a just predominance of the white race.

"The legal position of the colored inhabitants will be similar to that now held by them in Cape Colony."

The letter concludes:

"I must inform your honor that if the terms now offered are not accepted after a reasonable delay for consideration they must be regarded as cancelled."

BOTHA DECLINES TERMS.

On March 16 Lord Kitchener received General Botha's acknowledgment of the receipt of the letter.

"I had advised my government," wrote General Botha, "of your excellency's letter, but after the mutual exchange of views in our interview at Middleburg, February 28, it will certainly not surprise your excellency to know that I do not feel disposed to recommend the terms of said letter, but they shall have the earnest consideration of my government. I may add that my government and my chief officers here entirely agree with my views."

WILL WORK FOR STATEHOOD.

Santa Fe, N. M., March 22.—Governor Otero has signed a resolution adopted by the territorial legislature authorizing the appointment of a non-partisan commission of fourteen, with the governor as an ex-officio member, to go to Washington and work for statehood and against the international dam project.

Dr. Marts was called to Bluffton on professional business this afternoon.

A HEAP OF RUINS

IS A LARGE PART OF KERR MURRAY WORKS.

MACHINE SHOP DESTROYED

FIRE DOES DAMAGE TO THE EXTENT OF $50,000.

WORKS ARE TO BE REBUILT

GAS EXPLOSION MAY HAVE BEEN A CAUSE.

A disastrous fire, the precise origin of which no one seems able to explain, completely destroyed the main building of the Kerr Murray Manufacturing company, at Calhoun and Murray streets, this morning, entailing a loss estimated at from $40,000 to $50,000. The burned building included the large machine shop, the company's offices, the draughting room, the pattern shop and the pattern storeroom, with its thousands of dollars worth of valuable patterns. There was a total of $32,000 insurance upon the burned property, all carried in companies represented by the Lumbard agency.

It was the most disastrous conflagration that has been visited upon any Fort Wayne institution since the burning of the big DeWald dry goods house one year ago last December, and the flames were discovered shortly after 7 o'clock today, just as the big concern had started upon the day's work, and when a force of 150 workmen were in the various departments. So rapidly did the flames spread over the upper floors of the building that within a few minutes it became evident that the efforts of the fire department to save the building would be fruitless. The rooms above the machine shop were filled with thousands of patterns, dry as tinder, and these were licked up as though of paper. In an incredibly short time the entire upper portion of the building was an immense mass of fire that seethed and roared in awful fury, while the intense heat drove back the crowds of spectators that hurried to the scene.

A LARGE STRUCTURE.

The machine shop building was of brick, with a frontage of sixty feet on Calhoun street and 180 on Murray street, two and one-half stories in height. The entire first floor, except a small portion at the rear, was used as a machine shop. The Kerr Murray company are builders of gas works machinery and apparatus, and the machine shop was elaborately equipped with the most approved iron and steel-working machinery of every description.

The Calhoun street end of the second floor as well as the upper half story of the building were used as the pattern storage rooms. Behind this was the large pattern shop, also upon the second floor. The rear portion of the building, back of the departments just mentioned, was divided into three stories. Upon the first floor at this point were the main offices of the company, above them A. D. Cressler's private office, and still higher the draughting room, connected with the pattern shop by a short stairway. Between the two offices was a false floor to permit the running of shafting, gas, water and steam pipes to the different departments from the engine room next in the rear of the building.

WHERE IT STARTED.

While none of the employes are able to assign a cause for the fire a number of the foremen who were among the first to see it are united in the statement that the fire started somewhere in this false floor and beneath the northwest corner of the draughting room. H. J. Remmert, superintendent of the draughting room, was at work at a desk there when he was suddenly enveloped in a dense cloud of smoke that appeared to come from beneath him. The smoke appeared to come with a rush into the room, and Mr. Remmert was nearly overcome. He staggered to the stairway and was compelled to stand for some moments choking and gasping for breath.

E. J. Kiss, foreman of the pattern shop, was among the very first to notice the fire, and Mr. Kiss also locates it beneath the floor of the draughting room. It took but a short time for the alarm to spread, and with a rush the employes took up the work of fighting the flames, while A. W. Beaber, a clerk, turned in the alarm.

FOUGHT THE FLAMES.

In the factory were several barrels of water, an equipment of buckets for fighting fire, and a large number of hand grenades. With tremendous energy the employes used every available means to master the situation previous to arrival of the department, and a number of them were overcome by the smoke which rushed out in tremendous volume, filling every department of the upper floor. Inside the draughting room it was impossible to see for the smoke. The fire spread rapidly beneath the feet of the impromptu fire fighters, and before the men realized the extent of the blaze the flames had penetrated into the pattern shop, passed along the partition and were licking up the patterns as though they were of tinder. With an awful velocity the flames spread westward over the second floor, for every bit of property in the pattern shop furnished ready fuel. On and on swept the fiery tongues, and before the workmen below realized it the entire second floor was a seething mass.

WORKMEN CUT OFF.

The rapid spread of the flames may be understood when it is known that the men from the pattern shop who were engaged in fighting the fire at the draughting room had no opportunity to turn back for their tools, but were compelled to scramble down the stairway and leave valuable tools and clothing at their benches as food for the flames. Several found themselves caught in the front end of the pattern shop after the flames had made egress by way of the stairs impossible and let themselves out of a window and down to the roof of the storeroom on the north by means of a rope.

Engine companies 2 and 6 made the response to the first alarm, and Fire Chief Hilbrecht, who reached the scene almost at the same time, quickly saw that the department was to have a monumental fight on their hands. A general alarm was at once turned in and every bit of fire fighting apparatus in the city hurried into the struggle. From every direction the steamers, hose wagons and hook and ladder trucks clattered up to the scene, while an immense crowd of spectators crowded in and filled every available point of vantage within sight of the fire.

The police quickly ran a line of ropes along the street to hold back the curious crowds, who were getting in the way of the firemen. All the shops in the vicinity ceased operations and their employes joined the throngs of spectators, through which the engines, hose wagons and coal trucks hurried into position, as nearly as possible surrounding the building. Several lines of hose were laid across the railroad tracks, tying up all trains and the street car lines at the Calhoun street crossing.

Seven steamers, pulling at full speed, poured a perfect deluge of water upon the upper floors of the building from every point of the compass, but the water apparently had no more effect than though it were oil to feed the fury of the flames. The entire upper floor of the big building was a literal hell of flame that roared and crashed and increased in fury each moment, leaping and toss-ing in awful grandeur. Out of every upper window leaped the fiery darts that threatened destruction not alone to the plant of the Kerr Murray company, but to all the property in the immediate vicinity.

The heat was fearful in its intensity, and a number of houses upon the opposite side of Murray street were ablaze several times, but the fire was quickly smothered by a dash from the fire nozzles. Across the street the buildings occupied by the New Calderwood hotel, Hoham's drug store and other business houses were also threatened for a time, and some of the more timorous occupants of the upper rooms of these buildings began removing their belongings. Within a short time, however, it became evident that the department would be able to control the flames sufficiently to remove apprehension from this source.

WALLS TOPPLED AND FELL.

Far up beneath the slate roof at the west end of the building the flames licked away the supports sustaining the immense flag staff, 192 feet in height, which had stood like a majestic sentinel above the awful spectacle. The crowd of spectators watching the tall staff saw it lean outward as if to topple upon them, and there was a scurrying to get beyond its reach. Little by little the roof supports weakened as eaten away by the flames, the flagstaff with its immense weight sank for some distance straight downward.

A moment later it toppled backward upon the burned shell which alone remained of the upper section of the building, carrying with it a large section of the roof. Simultaneously the brick wall to the west and south began to waver perceptibly; it tottered a moment and then came crashing section by section into the street below with an awful report. This removed all support from the second floor, and the western half of this, with its huge piles of burning timber, pitched downward

A MASSACHUSETTS WOMAN'S HORRIBLE CRIME.

MURDERS HER SIX CHILDREN

FAILS IN ATTEMPT TO KILL HERSELF.

WAS TEMPORARILY INSANE

NOW DECLARES SHE IS SORRY FOR THE DEED.

Cold Brook, Mass., March 22.—For no reason which she is able to give, but presumably while temporarily insane, Mrs. Lizzie Naramore locked the doors of her farmhouse home near this village yesterday and brutally chopped her six children to death. Then she cut her own throat with a razor, but did not succeed in wounding herself fatally.

The deed was done in the most cold-blooded way, after apparently careful preparations. She was rational today and expressed sorrow for what she had done. She was perfectly rational, too, and acting in her usual way early yesterday morning, when her husband, Frank Naramore, left his home to go to his work in a sawmill.

There were three boys and three girls in the Naramore family, ranging in age from Ethel, the eldest, 10 years old, down to Lena, a baby girl of 10 months. The others were named Walter, Charlie, Chester and Bessie.

USED AN AX AND CLUB.

An ax and a club were used in the murders, and all of the children were horribly beaten about the head with many blows, any one of which would have killed. According to her statement to an intimate friend Mrs. Naramore began with the eldest, knocking her down with the back of the ax. She threw the body on a bed and went to another room for the next child.

That one was killed in the same way, and the bloody work was continued in the order of the children's ages. The baby was the last one killed, and the only one on which the club instead of the ax was used.

Two of the bodies were put on a bed in one room, and the other four on a bed in another room. Then Mrs. Naramore lay down across the blood-stained bodies of the four children and drew the razor across her own throat.

The crime is supposed to have been committed shortly after noon. It was discovered at 2:45, when George Thrasher, a delivery clerk for a grocery store, took some packages to the house.

THE HOUSE BARRICADED.

He found the doors locked, and could not attract anyone's attention. He noticed also that the children, who were usually playing around the yard, were not in sight. Then he looked through a window and saw big splotches of blood on the floor and the woman lying across the bed.

He hurried to the village, half a mile away, and told what he had seen, and a party quickly went to the place. An entrance was forced to the house, the doors being found to be not only locked but barred with sticks of wood.

Mrs. Naramore was very weak from loss of blood, but she was able to be taken to the village hotel, where the doctors decided after a time that she would recover. To the neighbors who called on her in the evening she told how she had killed the children, one after the other, and said that she had expected to die herself. She said, however, she was sorry for what she had done. Her husband is prostrated.

KILLS HIS THREE CHILDREN.

Waterville, Me., March 22.—Jacob Dearborn, of Clinton, murdered his three children yesterday with an ax at their home in that town.

into the machine room and forward toward the street.

SOME NARROW ESCAPES.

The crowd of spectators were back not a foot too far, and amid many exciting cries they scrambled back just out of reach of the mass of debris that fell even beyond the boundaries of the street. Several squads of firemen were at work in front of the building at the moment the walls began to topple and they got out of the way of the falling walls only by the merest fraction of margin. A few feet less of distance would have buried them beneath tons of falling brick and mortar. It was at this moment that one of the hose wagons of the fire department had an extremely narrow escape. It was being driven at a frantic pace from the north past the building as the walls began falling. There was no turning backward and the trained horses, as if realizing their peril, dashed forward past the danger barely in time to avoid the brick which clattered about the wagon as it passed.

STARTLING RUMORS.

In a moment the word passed through the crowd that at least two persons had been caught in the falling building and this added to the excitement, but the rumor proved to be untrue, though in a number of instances the escapes were little short of miraculous.

Immediately adjoining the main building at the north is the storeroom of the works, a one-story brick structure, filled with completed work awaiting shipment. Except for an occasional blaze, which was quickly controlled, the flames were kept out of this storeroom, though it was deluged with water and the toppling walls smashed in a large section of the room. The damage to the completed machinery will doubtless be heavy.

THREATENED TO SPREAD.

While the main attention of the crowd was directed to the spectacular effect of the conflagration at the Calhoun street end of the building, the fire fighters at the rear along Murray street were having their share of excitement. Between the offices at the rear end of the building and the engine room adjoining is a driveway, while still further to the rear of the engine room is the boiler shop and foundry, another large structure similar in size to the one destroyed today. It was apparent the offices were doomed, and repeatedly the roof and window frames at the eastern end of the boiler shop were ignited across the space occupied by the engine room and driveway. It was necessary to give almost constant attention to this danger in order to avoid a still more extensive blaze.

CAUGHT IN THE DEBRIS.

The splendidly furnished offices of the company, as well as Mr. Cressler's private office, located at the southeast corner of the burning building, were quickly licked up, and the flames spread out over the floor above the driveway. Close to the building at the rear several details of firemen were working, and a number of Kerr Murray employes were hurrying about in an effort if possible to save some of the smaller articles from the building. Leonard Blue, foreman of the foundry, and Louis Schwarzkopf, the shipping clerk, who had been in the lower offices of the building trying to rescue a number of drawings, emerged just in time to be struck by some of the falling debris, which though not yet burning had been released by the flames near it. Mr. Blue was knocked down upon his hands and knees, but managed to quickly crawl out to a place of safety. Mr. Schwarzkopf was also slightly bruised by some of the falling timbers.

WAS UNDER CONTROL.

Before 10 o'clock it became evident that the fire was under control, and that it would be confined to the one large building, though for several hours the engines continued pumping streams of water upon the heated and burning mass.

It may be regarded as most fortunate that the entire plant of the company was not wiped away, for in addition to the burned building there is a large foundry and boiler shop, store rooms, oil house, japanning rooms, a store for gray iron castings, a smaller foundry and other smaller buildings. At numberous times several of these had caught fire from the big structure, but the force of Kerr Murray employes stationed themselves at all points to protect the property, and thus extinguished the incipient blazes before they became threatening.

LOSS $40,000 TO $50,000.

To The Sentinel A. D. Cressler, president and principal owner of the Kerr Murray Manufacturing company, stated that it was impossible to give a definite estimate of the loss until there is an opportunity to discover whether any of the equipment of the machine shop can be utilized again. Mr. Cressler said, however, that the loss would be at least $40,000 to $50,000, and that it might run higher. One of the losses most difficult to replace is the thousands of patterns of the company which it has accumulated during its long career of business. These were very valuable, and all are destroyed except a comparatively few which were in use in the foundry department.

An immense number of valuable drawings which have been produced by the force of draughtsmen were also burned, but it is believed the two large vaults in the offices have protected the books and other valuable papers of the company safely. A. J. Perriot, a bookkeeper, who was an early arrival on the scene, hurriedly placed time-books, papers, etc., as well as the typewriting machines in the vaults and closed the doors before the fire had reached the offices.

INSURANCE $32,000.

Upon the building which burned there was an insurance of $32,000, carried in the following companies: Home of New York, $5,000; Royal, $2,000; Phoenix, $5,000; Hartford, $2,500; Niagara, $2,500; German-American, $5,000; Franklin, $2,500; Liverpool, London and Globe, $5,000; North British and Mercantile, $2,500.

SHOPS WILL REBUILD.

President A. D. Cressler had been at Detroit on business for the company and only reached the city at 2 o'clock this morning. He was asleep at his home when the fire broke out, but hurried to the scene and saw thousands of dollars worth of the company's property go up in smoke. Before 10 o'clock, however, Mr. Cressler stated that the works would be rebuilt as soon as possible, and he has already begun arrangements to put a number of pattern makers at work in the second floor of the foundry building until their old quarters can be rebuilt.

HISTORY OF THE WORKS.

The Kerr Murray works were established in 1862 by Hugh Bennigan and Kerr Murray. They were small in the start, but grew rapidly and were soon occupying an important position among the industries of Fort Wayne. In 1868 Mr. Bennigan disposed of his interest to Mr. Murray and the latter gentleman then became the sole owner of the works. Mr. Murray immediately began to extend the business and in addition to the regular custom work in which the establishment had been employed, he engaged in the manufacture of gas works machinery and holders, to which he later added the manufacture of elevator machinery. Mr. Murray died May 6, 1880, and Mr. A. D. Cressler took charge of the works and ran them a year in the interest of the heirs of the deceased proprietor. Mr. Cressler had previously been employed by the concern as timekeeper, traveling salesman and general foreman and was familiar with the business. In 1881 he had the concern incorporated, with a paid up capital of $100,000. The same year one of the largest brick buildings was erected and later other additions which went to make the extensive plant were erected. The working force was correspondingly increased until it numbered over 200. The business of the firm was never better than it is at present and the loss will, therefore, be more serious than it would have been had the fire occurred at a time when there was a less demand for the products of the shop.

BELIEVE IT WAS GAS.

Chief Hilbrecht and his firemen are inclined to the opinion that the fire was due to escaping gas, and the rapidity with which the flame spread would seem to support this belief. Captain Jasper, of the chemical engine company, who was the first of the firemen to reach the spot where the fire was first seen, says he is positive gas was escaping.

One story afloat was to the effect that a workman was engaged in repairing a leak in a gas pipe this morning when the escaping gas ignited from his candle, causing an explosion, but a number of the foremen, as well as Mr. Cressler himself, discredit this version, and spontaneous combustion, an overheated journal and other causes are suggested.

The falling walls tore down a large number of telephone wires, and the lines of the district messenger companies were seriously crippled. It was 2 o'clock this afternoon before the way was cleared for the street cars to pass the point, and until that time it was necessary for passengers to transfer around the break.

A LEAGUE MEETING HERE.

President Meyer is in receipt of a telegram from Manager Watkins, of Indianapolis, stating that Indianapolis and Louisville are all right and asking that a meeting of the league be called at Indianapolis for next Tuesday. He also received a letter from Stroebel, saying that while Grand Rapids looked bad, it was not altogether hopeless, and that something definite from there would be learned on Monday. President Meyer will call the meeting on Tuesday as suggested, but it will be held in Fort Wayne instead of Indianapolis. This is a case where the mountain will have to come to Mahomet. Further than this there is nothing new in the base ball situation.

ADAMS IS LOCATED.

Superintendent of Police Gorsline this afternoon received a letter from the chief of police of Boston, enclosing a photograph of V. R. Adams, and asking whether he was wanted here. Adams is the slick rascal who did some amazing stunts along charity lines. Here he got the Associated Charities interested in some entertaining schemes and succeeded in accumulating a neat little sum by his swindling operations and got away with it. He also operated at Indianapolis and escaped punishment there on account of the prominence of several families whom he had implicated in his nefarious swindling scheme. At Boston he forged a check for $8,000 and is being held under $1,000 bail.

ADVICE FROM MR. CARNEGIE

HE WILL GIVE INSTRUCTIONS ABOUT PAYMENT.

Council Must First Send Resolutions Providing for Maintenance of Library.

The welcome intelligence received a week ago that Andrew Carnegie, the millionaire philanthropist, had agreed to donate $75,000 to Fort Wayne for a public library building, was hailed with great joy by the delighted populace. The next question which naturally arose was when this donation would be made. Mr. Carnegie, as is well known, is now in Europe, or at least in Great Britain, where he will remain for an indefinite period, and there was considerable general speculation as to whether he would take up the library question any further until after his return to America. This problem has, however, been happily settled in Mr. Carnegie's usual decisive and prompt manner. When the acknowledgment of his letter guaranteeing the donation asked for on certain conditions was forwarded to him, the question was asked, what further steps were necessary on the part of the city in order to realize on his beneficence. A letter received by Mayor Scherer this forenoon puts the situation squarely up to the city. Following is a copy of the letter:

"New York, March 20, 1901.—Mayor Scherer, Fort Wayne, Ind.: Dear Sir—Yours 16. When you send resolutions of council's guaranteeing maintenance, Mr. Carnegie will give instructions about payment. Mr. Anderson, of the Carnegie Institute library, Pittsburg, will be glad to give you expert advice on plans if you submit them to him.

"Respectfully yours,
"James Bertram,
"Private Secretary."

There is not much to the letter, but it is plenty and indicates that Mr. Carnegie's absence from the country will have nothing to do with payment of the donation as soon as the city gives the proper guaranty stipulated in the conditions of the gift. The city council has not had a meeting since the receipt of Mr. Carnegie's first letter, but at the meeting next Tuesday the matter will be officially brought before the fathers and the proper resolutions and ordinances, if necessary, will be drafted and passed to assure the philanthropist that Fort Wayne gladly accepts the gift under the conditions and is swift to make the provisions necessary for the immediate consummation of the transaction. The city attorney is already looking up the legal points necessary to be covered to complete the city's assurance to Mr. Carnegie.

Dr. J. A. Lomas was called to Dixon, Ohio, this morning to diagnose a suspected case of smallpox. The sufferer is Ora Wise, a blind man, who resides with his mother and brother. Dr. Lomas says the case is a most malignant one and there is little likelihood of the patient recovering. Quarantine was raised from the home of John Rose, of Springfield township, this morning, where Mr. and Mrs. Rose have been very ill from the disease.

SOUSA AND HIS BAND.

Sousa and his peerless band were at the Temple last night, where they pleased an audience which nearly tested the capacity of the house. The balcony was packed and all except a few of the dollar and a half seats downstairs were filled. A criticism of the concert would be superfluous; when you say that it was Sousa's band little remains to be said. The always genial director was particularly generous last night and cheerfully and gracefully responded to the encores which were enthusiastically given. The responses were usually his own compositions or those of Mr. Pryor, one of the latter, "A Coontown Contest," being particularly novel and attractive. Of the program in general it might be said that it was not quite so popular in character as most of the previous programs rendered here have been. Mr. Sousa is gradually inclining more to the classical order than he did of yore, although the selections last night were not of that extremely ponderous character which marked the Thomas concert of a week ago. Arthur Pryor, the clever young Missourian, who stands today the world's premier trombonist, was not at his best last night, although his performance was so nearly perfect that slight imperfections were not noticed. He has been ill for several days and is suffering from a very severe cold. Miss Duffield, the soprano, and Miss Bucklin, the violin virtuoso, both acquitted themselves with great credit, while the ensembles of the band were simply perfection in military band work. Sousa's band grows in favor with each visit and is distinctively the most popular musical organization that has ever visited Fort Wayne. The aggregation left this morning for Kalamazoo, where a concert will be given this afternoon, and this evening it will appear at Grand Rapids.

THE HEALTH HABIT.

Just as Easy to Form as Any Other.

We do not deliberately form our pet habits, but they ar unconsciously acquired, and grow as we grow, and by the time we learn thy are hurting us, we find them too strong to be easily broken.

Then, why not form a good habit, a habit which will counteract the many bad ones, in other words contract the unfashionable habit of being always well?

The best health habit to get into is to have and keep a vigorous stomach; if you have a healthy digestion you can drink your beloved coffee, smoke your favorite brand of tobacco with little or no harm; the mischief begins when these things are forced upon the unfaithful stomach, without any assistance.

Form the habit of taking after meals some harmless but efficient digestive which will relieve the stomach of so much extra work.

Nature furnishes us with such digestives and when they are combined in such a pleasant preparation as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, they give the overworked stomach just the necessary assistance to secure perfect digestion without any of the harmful effects of cathartics and similar drugs.

The habit of taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals is as necessary to the weak stomach as food itself, and indeed to get the benefit from food eaten, nothing better and certainly nothing safer can be used.

Many families consider Stuart's Tablets as essential in the house as knives and forks.

They consist entirely of natural digestive principles without the effect or characteristics of drugs; they have no cathartic action, but simply go to work on the food eaten and digest it.

Take into account your bad habits and the expense they entail and then invest fifty cents in a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and see if your digestion for the next month is not vastly improved.

Ask the clerk in any drug store the name of the most successful and popular stomach remedy and he will say Stuart's.

HARRISON INSURED FOR $40,000

Indianapolis, March 22.—Ex-President Harrison left $40,000 life insurance. This fact was announced last night by the president of the Union Trust company, which is executor of General Harrison's will. He said:

"General Harrison had four policies of $10,000 each in force. The box containing the policies has not been opened yet. Our appraisement of the Harrison estate gives its total value at $380,000. This includes all real estate, railroad bonds, stock in the Union Trust company, the Law building here and other securities."

Mr. Eitel was asked concerning a report that Mrs. Harrison had signified her intention to take the widow's third, rather than accept the specified bequests under the will. He said there was not the slightest justification for such a story.

Perhaps the only way the country can shake Addicks is to disannex Delaware. It would be losing little as to territory and a good deal as to Addicks.

Mr. Bryan has offered $5 reward for anything Mr. Cleveland has said showing how to apply democratic principles to modern issues. That is important because it is the first time Mr. Bryan has indicated that he sets any value upon what Mr. Cleveland says.

Certain unfeeling gentlemen of the Nebraska legislature have, so to speak, put the heels of their contempt on that good man and fatherly statesman, Hon. Marcus A. Hanna, of Ohio. Mr. Hanna had appealed in the name of the administration and the republican national committee to the gentlemen aforesaid to settle the senatorial deadlock in Nebraska by submitting to a devious caucus action and electing D. E. Thompson, the caucus nominee. Mr. Hanna's request was answered by wire and boiled down and reeled off means that Mr. Hanna and the national committee may mind their own business, a privilege certain Nebraska legislators are reserving for themselves. It is too bad—too too bad, indeed, for Delaware lately gave the chairman of the republican national committee another such a jolt in the wind.

FORT WAYNE AUDITORIUM ASSOCIATION — I AM A MEMBER

The auditorium cannot be built without money and there will be no money unless all the people unite to provide it. There are above twenty-five thousand men and women in Fort Wayne who are able to subscribe for some amount of stock from one dollar to a thousand dollars and more. If all who are able to own stock in the auditorium will take the one step necessary to possess the stock there will be neither question nor delay about the building of the auditorium. Resolve at once that you will be a stockholder in the auditorium, then carefully ascertain how much stock you can afford to take and when the solicitor calls you will be ready to do your part promptly, generously and with the good sense and prudence that should characterize the making of all business investments.

It may be that Governor Odell, of New York, is ambitious to dethrone Thomas C. Platt and mount the seat of political power of the "easy boss," but for the present it is well to credit the governor with honest motives and courageous independence. At all events, he has defied Platt and it looks as though Platt would have to swallow the defiance with what grace he can. Governor Odell has announced and repeatedly affirmed that he will veto the police bill Platt is trying to foist on Greater New York, and it is evident that he means what he says. It is a good sign, a happy omen, that promises much to more than the people of New York. When Governor Odell was nominated he was branded as distinctly a Platt candidate and it was sincerely believed that the imperial boss of Empire state republican politics would as thoroughly control executive action as though he were himself governor. There is good augury in Governor Odell's early disappointment of the prophecies that he would be a mere tool of the boss who made him governor. It now depends on how well he holds out against Platt's threats to give him early political burial whether or not he rids his state of the almost tyrannical domination of a man who is an embodiment of most that is evil in our politics.

TWO CASES OF INSANITY

ONE FORT WAYNE PATIENT ESCAPES. ANOTHER DEPORTED.

James Rhine Re-taken at His Father's Home Catherine Wendling Sent Back to Germany.

The sheriff was this morning notified that James Rhine, an insane patient from this county, had escaped from the eastern hospital at Richmond on the 18th inst. and was still at large, and was supposed to have returned to his home in Fort Wayne. The sheriff sent two deputies to Rhine's home just outside the city limits in the east end and found the escaped man there. He tried to hide but made no resistance, and will be returned to the asylum tomorrow.

A special to The Sentinel from Richmond announces that Catherine Wendling, a patient from this county, had been discharged and turned over to the commissioner of immigration of the port of New York for deportation to Germany, she being an alien and dependant.

Catherine Wendling was adjudged insane on the 17th of December by a commission consisting of Justices Bullerman and Yancey and Doctors Calvin and Rosenthal. She had come to this city from Germany about three weeks previous to visit a religious sister at St. Joseph hospital. She was taken ill and was finally adjudged insane. She is about twenty-three years of age and rather prepossessing.

The aged mother of Mrs. Noble, of 33 Michigan avenue, fell down the cellar steps at her home this morning. No bones were broken, but the lady suffered painful injuries.

TO ACCOMMODATE those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price including the spraying tube is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the secretions but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 50 Warren St., N. Y.

WAS FIRST POLICE CAPTAIN

CONRAD PENS DIES AT HIS KANSAS HOME.

Former Prominent Citizen Was Served Fort Wayne in Public Capacity Years Ago.

Conrad Pens died at his home at Humboldt, Kan., yesterday, aged about 78 years. The news of his demise was conveyed here in a telegram to his daughter, Mrs. Adam Zeigler, of Maple avenue. Mr. Pens was a former well known citizen of Fort Wayne. He came here when a young man for the purpose of working upon the canal, which was then in course of construction, and resided here until 1877, when he moved to Kansas. He was married here to Miss Hobrock, a well known young lady in early days, who has some brothers residing in Allen county now. She died many years ago and Mr. Pens married again and his second wife and nine children are still living. Mrs. Zeigler, of this city, and Frederick Pens, of Huntington, are the only members of the family residing in Indiana, the other children being residents of Kansas. The deceased was a member of one of the very first volunteer fire companies of Fort Wayne. He took an active part in politics in an early day and was the first police captain in the city. He also served two or three terms as assessor of Wayne township. The remains will be interred at Humboldt.

AGREE ON THE FRANCHISE

GRANTS TO SOUTHWESTERN ROAD DETERMINED.

Board of Works Straightens Out Some Involved Features—City Hall News.

The board of works met in regular session Thursday night and held a lengthy consultation with the Southwestern railway company's representatives. The conference was in regard to the franchises asked for by the company to extend its lines to the southwestern and northwestern parts of the city, and, as was related in Thursday's issue, there occurred some irregularities which had to be straightened before the board could pass upon the matter. One of the differences was concerning a right of way through private property in the south part of the city, but all the matters were amicably adjusted and will be reduced to writing in the contract, and it is expected that the franchise will be ready to be finally presented to the council for reference at the next meeting on Tuesday night. One point agreed upon was the duration of the franchise inside the city, which was made for a term of twenty-five years, while the original franchise for the main line was for fifty years. It was feared that the stipulation reducing the life of the franchise might affect the entire line, but the city attorney arranged the phraseology so that no such an effect would result. It was further agreed that the entire line from Huntington to the corner of Calhoun and Columbia streets should be completed before any of the branch line franchises should become effective. The company made no objection to this provision, which was a sufficient evidence of entire good faith on the part of the company. Compensation to the city from the inter-municipal lines was also discussed, but not finally settled. It is likely, however, that the terms will eventually be arranged on a basis of nothing for the first year, $250 per year for the next two years, $500 for the ensuing five years, and $1,000 a year thereafter during the life of the franchise.

The petition for a sidewalk on Clay street and on Columbia street, forming the approaches to the Columbia street bridge, was pigeonholed for future reference, a motion to have plans and specifications therefor being defeated. Other petitions for opening Pierce street and Meyer avenue, from Fairfield avenue to South Wayne avenue; for sidewalks on Indiana avenue, and for reducing the width of Barr street, were filed.

Resolutions were passed for building sewers between John and Gay streets, in the alley south of Maumee avenue, in the extreme east end, and in an alley east of Walton avenue, from Maumee avenue to Alliger street.

Louis Curdes was given permission to build sidewalks around his own property under private contract, and the Paul Pulley works and others remonstrated against the building of sidewalks on Sixth street.

The clerk was instructed to ask the comptroller and council for an additional appropriation for the street lighting fund to provide for lamps at the following places: Calhoun street and Creighton avenue, Broadway and Creighton avenue, Calhoun and Sixth streets, Brackenridge and Ewing streets, and Baker and Harrison streets.

SMOKING SAM SHOCKLEY

HE BREAKS INTO THE POLICE COURT AGAIN.

Has Disposed of the Reptiles and Other Things in His Zoo and Has Snow Storms.

Yesterday was the first day of spring, according to the almanac, and a bad day it was. It was too stormy for people to get about with comfort, according to the story of Mr. Samuel Shockley, who made his bow to the mayor this morning for the second time in two days. Samuel was up yesterday for the same offense and was given an hour to leave town. Last evening he was found again, howling drunk, but has disposed of his menagerie and had no animals in stock. He gave as an explanation for his failure to reach the city limits on time that it was too stormy for anybody to get around. He will be protected from the storm for the next twenty-one days.

Daniel Hiatt and Ella Hiatt, his wife, were arraigned for making a tough house at the booze emporium of Ed Keever, on East Columbia street. The pair dropped into the place last night and after loading up with a few drinks, varied the monotony by heaving spittoons and things at the mirror and other furniture. Mr. Hiatt admitted flatly that he was drunk, but Mrs. Hiatt said she had taken only a drink or two of whisky and was not drunk, but became excited. When she got on the street she missed her pocketbook, and going back into the saloon, she accused Mrs. Keever of stealing it. Mrs. Keever called her a liar, whereupon Mrs. Hiatt made a long-arm reach for her solar plexus. The ladies mixed it up for a minute or two before the spittoon variation was introduced. Meanwhile the police came in and arrested the belligerent strangers. The mayor sized up the situation and after sparring around a few hundred feet them for $5 each.

Andrew Drake, a colored gentleman and a coke-car tourist, was run in for train climbing. He said he was a cabinetmaker en route from Pittsburg to Chicago to hold down a job. The mayor asked him whether his job would wait on him for about eleven days and Andrew went over for that period.

Charles Clark, an individual with a list of ailments as long as a hospital record, was arrested for peddling spectacles without a license. He went over for eleven days in default of the ready cash.

A clerk at Dreier Bros.' drug store reported the loss of a bicycle to the police last night. The gentleman has suffered similar losses before and each time it was discovered that his wheel had been taken by a friend as a "joke."

Letter Carrier Heller is mourning the loss of a pet beagle hound.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, March 22.—There was a fair trade in wheat, but the early trend was against holders. Liverpool was easy, the weather seasonable, northwest receipts were liberal and Argentine shipments heavy. May opened ⅛c to ⅜@⅝c lower at 76⅜c to 76¼c. This decline brought out stop-loss orders and May further declined to 75⅝c. Local receipts were 59 cars, 1 of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 433 cars against 340 last week and 480 a year ago.

The corn trade early was a local affair. May opened ⅛c to a shade lower at 41⅛@41¼c on good weather and in sympathy with wheat and declined on local selling to 40⅞c. Receipts were 221 cars, 31 of contract grade.

Oats were quiet and easier with other markets. May opened unchanged to a shade down at 24⅛@24⅜c and declined to 24⅜c. Receipts were 166 cars.

May pork suffered a further break during the fore part of the session. The opening was unchanged to 5c higher at $16.35 to $16.40. Longs offered to secure profits and a sharp decline to $15.80 followed. At this point the market steadied and reacted to $16.00. May lard opened unchanged at $7.87½, sold a shade higher and then reacted to $7.80. May ribs opened 2½@5c up at $7.80 and advanced to $7.90@7.92½. The opening steadiness was due to light hog receipts.

A reception was given President and Mrs. Hadley at Hearst hall, Berkeley, this afternoon, by President Benjamin Ide Wheeler.

SHRINERS IN HONOLULU.

Honolulu, March 14, via Victoria, B. C., March 22.—The steamship Sierra arrived yesterday with the visiting Shriners from Grand Rapids, Mich., and other places, aboard. The run was made in the quick time of five days and ten hours. The reception committee from the local Shriners chartered a tug and met the steamer outside the harbor. A large crowd was at the dock. The excursionists were escorted to automobiles and hacks and conveyed to hotels. No special program for the entertaining of the guests had been arranged, the idea being for the local Shriners to entertain the visitors in an informal way. On Sunday, however, the Shriners will attend the native feast of Luau given by the local institution. A ball is to be given this week in honor of the visitors, who will also attend a theatrical performance. A local temple will be installed at this place during the visit. The governor's band gave a concert last night in honor of the Shriners.

DISCREDIT A CONFESSION.

Omaha, Neb., March 22.—Chief of Police Donahue, when shown the Associated Press dispatch from Dallas, stating that H. E. Henderson, a prisoner in the Texas city, had confessed complicity in the Cudahy kidnaping, said he had no information on the subject. At police headquarters it was declared that Henderson probably is booked for a long term in Texas and took a very common method with crooks under such circumstances. Henderson was arrested at Dallas previously—early in February. At that time a picture of Pat Crowe was found in his trunk. The discovery led to an investigation at that time, which, however, was without important results.

TROOPS ARE WITHDRAWN.

Pekin, March 22.—The troops on both sides of the disputed land at Tien Tsin have been withdrawn and all danger of a fracas is ended. The opinion of the British is that the promptness of General Barrow in calling up the marines from Taku prevented a collision. The British report that prior to the arrival of the marines sentries were supplied from the Madras pioneers, who for several days were surrounded by crowds of foraging soldiers, mostly French, who assailed them with all kinds of abuse, calling them "coolies." The Madrassees were becoming restive, when the marines arrived at night and relieved them, and it was only when daylight appeared that the Russians discovered the change.

SHOP AND RAIL

BRAKEMAN GALLIGHER RECEIVES $1,200.

LOST HIS FOOT AT KNOX

AND CAME UNDER THE DISABILITY RULE.

WABASH CONDUCTOR INJURED

ARM BROKEN AND HURT INTERNALLY.

A little incident illustrating the benefits to be derived from a membership in one of the railway brotherhoods occurred last evening. It was the receipt by James Galligher of a draft for $1,200, in payment of a total disability policy held by that gentleman in the insurance branch of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen. Mr. Galligher was a Nickel Plate brakeman and lost a foot in an accident at Knox, Ind., last August. He had been a member of the brotherhood a little over a year and had paid in premiums and dues less than $25.

A MAGNIFICENT CAR.

One of the finest dining cars in the service of any railroad is now in service on the Nickel Plate. The exterior appearance is not different to a noticeable extent from other dining cars, but the interior is far above most of the dining cars in daily use in this part of the country. It is finished in light mahogany and inlaid with lighter wood, which was previously colored in hot sand to harmonize with the mahogany. The effect is most beautiful and pleasing to the eye. The domed roof of the car is elegantly fitted with ventilating windows, panels and trimmings, while through its center is a row of artificial lights. A handsomely arranged cluster of lights is also placed above each of the dining tables. This car is numbered 102 and it is the first of the two or three that the company has ordered from the Barney & Smith company. The others will be out of the shop in a few days and will take their places in the service on the road. Last evening a party of newspaper men—a representative from each of the five dailies in the city—enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. C. C. Denton, dining car superintendent of the Nickel Plate, and Passenger Agent C. A. Asterlin on this magnificent car, leaving the city on train No. 3, at 4:30 o'clock. En route west dinner was served, the following being the menu:

Cocktail
Celery Blue Points Olives
Broiled White Fish
String Potatoes
Claret
Tenderloin Steak, with Mushrooms
French Fried Potatoes
Broiled Quail on Toast
Tomato and Lettuce Salad
Strawberries and Cream
Assorted Cake
Crackers Roquefort Cheese
Coffee Cigars

The car is presidede over by Conductor J. W. Hays, a gentleman who has had a vast experience in that line and who possesses natural attributes calculated to fit him for such a position. His chef and attendants at the tables are also well trained and fitted for the work they are called upon to perform. The party left the train at Tippecanoe and boarded train No. 4, arriving home at 8:30 o'clock. En route to the city they indulged in a smoke and also partook of some refreshments.

BEEF FOR EXPORT.

A train of thirty-seven refrigerator cars, loaded with dressed beef from the Armour packing house in Chicago and hauled by two engines, passed through the city, over the Nickel Plate, at 9:30 o'clock last night. This meat is for export and it is being rushed to the seaboard with the speed of a passenger train. It is probably one of the most valuable single shipments passing through the city this winter. A dealer in meats placed an estimate of the cost of this shipment aboard ship in New York harbor at $300,000.

CHARGE OF RATE CUTTING.

Pittsburg, March 22.—An important meeting of representatives of railroads out of Pittsburg having Cleveland passenger traffic, is in session here today. Considerable friction over Cleveland business between the roads has resulted and efforts to establish harmony have been ineffectual. It has been charged that rate cutting has been indulged in and considerable bad feeling has been engendered. Efforts have been made to bring all those in authority out at today's meeting and indications point to a peaceful solution.

RED IN THE BLOOD

is the sign of life, of vital force, of the force that life has, of the force that life is.

When the red is lacking, life is weak, the spirits are weak, the body is weak.

Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil puts red in the blood and life in the body.

It's the food you can turn into muscle and bone and nerve. It gives you the mastery over your usual food—you want that. What is life worth if you've got to keep dosing yourself as an invalid?

WABASH'S NEW ROAD.

The officers of the Wabash who attended the railway meeting in Toledo yesterday returned to their homes in Lafayette and St. Louis last night, passing through this city on train No. 3. All the preliminarily work has been attended to and there is nothing that can interfere with the construction of the proposed railway extensions and connecting lines. The Fort Wayne and Detroit line will be only twenty-five miles long, according to the latest survey. Of it the Peru Chronicle says: "R. P. Vandusen, civil engineer of the Wabash railway, and his force of men completed the Wabash survey of the new connecting line between New Haven and Butler last night. Mr. Vandusen states that he found the proposed route of twenty-five miles almost a straight line with the highest grade at any point but sixteen feet to the mile. He also states that with but one exception he did not encounter a single person who objected to the line running through his farm. The plat and survey will now be submitted to the officers of the road and it is supposed contracts will be let at once for the construction of the line."

TIPTON PLEADS GUILTY.

Buffalo, March 22.—John E. Tipton, late secretary of the Switchmen's Union of North America, today pleaded guilty to an indictment charging him with grand larceny in the second degree. It was one of three indictments against him in connection with the alleged "robbery" of the union's office in the Prudential building on March 4 last. Sentence will be pronounced Tuesday. The extreme penalty is five years' imprisonment.

CONDUCTOR BADLY HURT.

Relatives in this city have received word of an accident which happened to Frank Keplinger, a conductor on the Chicago-Detroit division of the Wabash road. He had his left arm broken in two places and sustained internal injuries of a painful character. The particulars of the accident are not known here. The unfortunate man is a brother of J. A. Keplinger, the well known passenger engineer on the Pittsburg road.

G. A. R. RATE FIXED.

An important meeting of railway men was held at Cleveland yesterday, at which the one-cent a mile rate promised for the Grand Army of the Republic encampment, to be held in Cleveland next September, was formally promulgated. This fixes the railroad rate absolutely and finally. In St. Louis January 21 last the governing committee of the Grand Army accepted the rate and the encampment was located at Cleveland. The General Passenger association appointed a committee to fix rate, formulate ticket conditions and make other arrangements to govern for the thirty-fifth Grand Army encampment. This action governs the rate in territory going and returning from and to all points in Central Passenger association territory. The rate will also be tendered to the connecting lines and outside territory for basing purposes.

With the new roads and the reballasting of the old ones the gravel pit will be the scene of unusual activity this season. The train crews have not yet been selected.

W. Seaman, who has been employed during the winter months in the Pittsburg boiler shops as a helper, resigned last night. He is a paper hanger and painter by trade and will go to Chicago to take charge of a gang of men in that line of work. William Redmon also resigned his position in the boiler shop. He is a barber and may engage in that kind of work again.

Jacob Ahner, a car builder at the east shops, came near losing his left eye yesterday. He was engaged in removing a sill from a car when an end of the piece fell, throwing up a splinter, which lodged in the corner of the optic. Dr. R. Parks White, the company's specialist, attended the unfortunate man and says that the sight of the wounded eye will not be permanently injured. Mr. Ahner resides at 253 Walton avenue, where he was taken after the accident.

General Manager J. J. Wood, of the Fort Wayne Electric company, returned from the east last night. He had been there several days upon an important mission connected with the company.

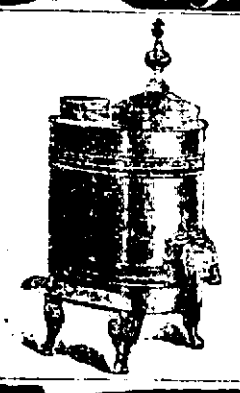
"If it's a good thing SEAVEY'S have it."



A Warm Suggestion

A small heating stove that can be fired with a little wood now and then, is lots better than keeping a furnace fired up during these days when it is chilly but not really cold. It will save a great deal in fuel, be easier to regulate, and can be readily taken down and stored when not wanted. A furnace isn't a complete heating outfit. Our Columbia Air Tight is just the stove you want to do this work satisfactorily, and the price is only $2.25 for small size. That is certainly a good investment. An ounce of reality is worth a pound of romance, and the reality of our advertised values is usually recognized
